

- We are also working hard in the International Labour Organization (ILO) to develop a new convention on eliminating the most hazardous forms of child labour. This convention is expected to be adopted in 1999. Last year, Canada made a contribution of $700,000 to the ILO's International Program for the Elimination of Child Labour.
- Canada participated in the Amsterdam Child Labour Conference in February 1997, and Minister Marleau represented Canada at a similar conference in Oslo in October.
