

Business of the House

Order of the Day

Mr. Stewart: I am pleased to see that the Government has taken the initiative in this matter. It is a very important matter and I am sure that the Government will continue to take the lead in this matter.

It is a very important matter and I am sure that the Government will continue to take the lead in this matter.

The Minister of Health: I am pleased to see that the Government has taken the initiative in this matter. It is a very important matter and I am sure that the Government will continue to take the lead in this matter.