Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment lost. The question is on the main motion. The right hon. Prime Minister.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Right Hon. P. E. Trudeau (Prime Minister): Mr. Speaker, we did have a good party last night, but I hope the applause will not disturb the electronic system further.

I should like to say at the outset that I anticipate a twinge of disappointment when this bill passes into law. The disappointment will not be over the bill, for it is a very good one, but over the fact that this exercise in tax reform will fall short by several months from occupying one full decade.
