

Excise Tax Act

Mr. Rodriguez: Mr. Speaker, I take great delight in now speaking on the main motion. However, since it is six o'clock, may I call it six o'clock?

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. I presumed that there was no disposition to debate the main motion further, and I was about to put the question to see whether or not that was the case. It is understood that the debate will continue on the main motion. It being six o'clock, I do now leave the chair. The House stands adjourned until 2 p.m. tomorrow.

At 6.21 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
