Mr. Lewis: Madam Speaker, there have been discussions amongst House Leaders and I believe you will find that if you were to put the question on the first item and have the division recorded on that item, and then put items Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 9, you will find there is a general disposition among the Parties to apply the division taken on item 1 to the subsequent six items, and that that division be recorded in Hansard on each of the items Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 9. Thus Members will avoid having to rise that many times.

Madam Speaker: That will be very helpful.

The question is on motion No. 1. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Some Hon. Members: No.

Madam Speaker: All those in favour of the motion will please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Madam Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Madam Speaker: In my opinion, the yeas have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

Madam Speaker: We will dispense with the bells at all times.

The House divided on the motion which was agreed to on the following division:

(Division No. 305)
