Dear Sir Arthur,

Re - Suggested Changes in the School of Commerce

I hope to have an interview with Prof^r Stanley next week for the purpose, among other things, of giving him an idea of the ground we cover in our four year course in Accountancy.

Professor Sugars informed me this morning that he was making recommendations to you regarding the future of the School of Commerce. One recommendation is for Accountancy to be reduced to a three year course. This would mean the crowding of some work, and the cutting out of other, so that students who wished to study Accountancy would not be as well prepared, as they are now, when they get their degree.
