

Seeks further material

December
Second 1921.

A. A. Bowman Esq., B.Sc.,
27 Wellington Street East,
Toronto, Ont.

My dear Bowman:

Thank you very much for your letter of yesterday. I have already read it, but have not the time to comment upon it as I would like. It is full of meat, and I promise to endeavor to digest it thoroughly. I shall write to you again.

With many thanks for this letter, and all good wishes to you and Mrs. Bowman, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.