

December 21, 1926.

Richard Osborne, Esq.,
Secretary to the Governor General,
Ottawa.

Dear Mr. Osborne:-

I am very much obliged for your letter of the 21st. I shall not be able for a few days to know whether the date of this concert can be altered, as it would of course be necessary to change our arrangements with all the performers.

Possibly their Excellencies might be able to come on March 9th which is the next date, and if they would honour us at that time it would be preferable, from our point of view, to altering the present plans.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.
