Ottawa, Ont.

Dear Mrs. Burns:-

I am sorry to learn by your letter of the 11th instant that you are still having a certain amount of bad luck. I remember receiving a letter from you when I was in the Department at Ottawa and I also think that you came to see me.

It is too bad that as you were forced to depend upon your son for support that he should have got married and therefore made it more difficult for you. I am very sorry, the more so because I do not know of anything I can do to help you. There are so many claims upon one's sympathy and purse that it is impossible to help all, no matter how worthy.

I am sure I wish you well.

Yours faithfully,
