

The resolution was put to the Synod by the Clerical Secretary and carried unanimously.

MINUTES.

The minutes of the day's proceedings were then read, and on motion, duly carried, were confirmed and signed by the Chairman.

The business of the Synod being finished, the members rose and joined together in singing the Te Deum, after which the Lord Bishop pronounced the benediction, and declared the First Session of the Sixth Session of the Diocese of British Columbia to be concluded.

