

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

xi

PAGE

governor's De Cal-
pointed
..... 109

storing
—Siege
nois in governor.
..... 125

arnois,
dmiral
of the ounded
ins of
A. D.
..... 131

ing to d 1702.
Peace
apelle
ard to
..... 143

ective
d the ge.—
—“La
Lours.—
ny of
..... 147

aign
Wil-
er.—
esne
enac
756-
.... 155

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIXTH.

PAGE

Campaign of 1759.—Expectations of the English.—Amherst's operations on Lake Champlain.—Siege and capture of Fort Niagara.—The armament of Saunders and Wolfe.—Montcalm's plans of defence at Quebec.—Bombardment of Quebec.—Battle of Beauport Flats on July 31st.—Wolfe's sickness.—Wolfe's last general orders.—Landing at Wolfe's Cove.—Montcalm deceived.—Battle of the Plains of Abraham.—Death of Wolfe and Montcalm. (A. D. 1759.)..... 163

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVENTH.

Retreat from Beauport.—Operations of the English after the battle of Sept. 13th.—Capitulation of Quebec.—Winter campaign and sufferings of the English garrison.—Operations of de Levis.—Behaviour of the English officers and soldiers towards the inhabitants (A. D. 1759-1760.)... 178

CHAPTER TWENTY-EIGHTH.

Operations of de Levis.—Second Battle of the Plains of Abraham.—Arrival of English vessels.—Retreat of de Levis.—March of English Forces upon Montreal.—Capitulation of Montreal.—End of the war between England and France.—Canada ceded to Great Britain.—Many quit Canada.—Population in 1762. (A. D. 1760-1763.)..... 184

PART SECOND.

CHAPTER FIRST.

Canada under a military government.—Proclamation of October 1763.—Opposite expectations of the old and new residents.—General Murray, Governor.—His instructions.—General Murray's departure. (A. D. 1763-1766.)..... 190

CHAPTER SECOND.

Insurrection of the Indians.—Pontiac's conspiracy. (A. D. 1764.)..... 194

CHAPTER THIRD.

Sir Guy Carleton, Governor.—The condition and wishes of the inhabitants.—The “Quebec Act” of 1774.—Revolt of the other British American colonies. (A. D. 1766-1775.) 196