

Mid-Week Buying Chances at Simpson's

For many reasons the middle of the week is the best time to do your serious buying. The store is not apt to be so crowded, and the salespeople can devote more personal attention to each customer. To encourage this more leisurely shopping we give a special programme of extra values that is no whit less interesting than the ends of the week list, and which may include exactly the goods you most need.

This page is a partial list of tomorrow's offerings.
