The Usual Prices Obtain On An Unusual Range of Dress Fabrics

The display of autumn silks and dress goods is fuller this fall than ever before; the range of weaves and tones is wider, and, if anything, better than last year. These items are representative:

DRESS GOODS AND SUITINGS.
 Case after case has been unpacked, each adding something to the array of correct fabrics for fall suit, coat, cape or dress. From these we offer three phenomenal values:
 2,000 yards Black and White Tailor Suiting, 39c. Worstest finish; warranted to tailor well, at per yard .39
 52-inch English Wide Wale Suiting. A splendid range of shades, including navy and black; the best offer of the season; 52 inches wide; soap-shrunk and spot-proof. Tuesday, per yard .59
 Black Chiffon Broadcloth, $1.10. A lovely, high-finished cloth; 52 inches wide; soap-shrunk, and warranted unspottable. Tuesday, yard. 1.10

OUR VELVET DEPARTMENT.
 The stocks collected for our opening promise a big season for this section. There are pile fabrics of all kinds, from the plain velveteens at 50c to the high-grade novelties running into dollars per yard, and they were bought in such quantities that prices on many lines are even lower than last season.
 Chiffon Finished Velveteens, guaranteed fast pile and perfect colors; complete ranges at 50c, 75c and $1.00 per yard.
 44-inch velvet, special at 2.50
 Velvet Suiting Cords are favorites, with their excellent wearing qualities and deep, rich pile. Fine Terry cords, the woven, the hollow-cut and the very wide wale effects. Prices 44c to $1.50 per yard.
 Chiffon Velvets, for the "dresses" gown; this season's range of colorings, surpasses any yet attempted; the new pastel tones are unpacked. Prices $3.50 and $5.00 per yard.
 The display of Black Velvet Brocades alone is a revelation. Moire effects, satin and velvet combinations; the new baby lamb plushes; Terry and plain velvets, chiffon, serot or Lyons pile, with new silk coating plushes, etc., etc. Coat plushes, in colors, are good, and already selling fast. A big feature of this season's trade will be the "Persian effects" and Roman stripes, plaids and "moired" velvets.

The Speed Specials

"MANUFACTURER'S SECONDS" IN TABLE CLOTHS.
 We were very fortunate in securing a splendid shipment of first-class "manufacturer's seconds" in Satin Damask Table Cloths just in time to offer them to our Exhibition visitors. Most of these table cloths are so nearly perfect that it takes an expert to see what the trouble is; a thick thread, knot, stain or poor laundering are the principal "faults" which class them "seconds." We have grouped them in three lots. The best choice can be made at 8.30 a.m.
 Lot No. 1—2 x 2 1/2 x 2 1/2 x 2 1/2 x 3 yards, worth if perfect $2.25 to $2.65. Tuesday, each .1.00
 Lot No. 2—2 x 2 1/2 yards, $2.75 to $3.25. Tuesday, each .1.88
 Lot No. 3—2 x 2 1/2 yards, $3.25 to $4.00. Tuesday, each .2.48
 We cannot accept mail or phone orders for these cloths.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

A writer in the "London Daily Mail" suggests that the Nation's motto at the present moment should be "Business As Usual."
 "The Spectator" says: "That is sound common sense and true patriotism. There is not one of us who cannot without the slightest loss of health or happiness be 'speeded up' by some fifteen or twenty per cent. If we all—men, women and children—resolve to work harder and better than before, we shall very soon overtake the losses of war. They are superficial things if the spirit survives." This is the spirit of old England where almost everybody is hard hit. How much more should we in Canada, far removed from the seat of war and only indirectly feeling any effect of it, be speeded up to harder work and better work than ever. This spirit pervades the Simpson store.

New Autumn Serge Suits for Misses and Women $10.00

This well-timed sale of serge suits is intended for early shoppers. The materials are black or navy imported serges. The coats are silk lined and the skirts are made to simulate tunic skirts. The lines are smart and the suits have every characteristic of good clothing, from the turn of the collar to the finishing of the seams. A splendid value for 8.30 Tuesday, 10.00 at

For Women of Fuller Figure

A considerable number of women are built on solid lines, requiring more room at the shoulders or hips for perfect comfort. To supply them with smart, well-made garments has been a study well worth all the effort our cutters have put into it. Come and see what a range we have to offer.

NEW FALL DRESSES IN SERGE AND SILK.
 For medium and stout figures, are specially priced at $6.75 and $10.50. Materials are paillettes, in shades of black, navy, myrtle and saxe, and imported serges in navy and black; new models, with long tunics becomingly trimmed. Tuesday $6.75 and $10.50.
Skirts for Heavy Women. We show particularly good styles with long tunics or tunic effects, formed by deep tucks, and there is quite a range of others, some ornamented with buttons; a splendid quality serge skirt, in black or navy, with waist bands, 29 to 35 in., and front lengths 39 to 42 in., is offered as a special value Tuesday at 2.95

Other good styles in larger sizes comprise a variety of becoming skirts, with pleated tunics, in cashmere serges and French serges. Prices $4.25 to $7.50.

"Speeding up" Business in the Women and Children's Wear

Four items to make things go with a hum to-morrow. From your standpoint as a purchaser, such values prove that business is better than usual. Each one of these is a money-saver.
