Await Russia's Move. German papers state that Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army, with Bulgarians and Turks, is to be directed against the Anglo-French forces in the south, but doubtless many of them are going down the Danube to meet the Russian menace. The public is expecting every day to hear of the movement of the Russian army, which the emperor recently reviewed in Eessarabia, but apparently the negotiations with Roumania for the use of the Danube have not been concluded.
