VISIT TO BOME.

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor of Peterboro has announced to his people that he intends paying a visit to the Etornal city early in October, when he will lay the temporal and spiritual condition of his charge before the Holy Father and ask his benediction for himself and his people. In his pastoral letter announcing his journey the Bishop asks the Catholics of the diocese to make an offering towards Peter's Pence. The last report of the diocese of Peterboro' last before the Holy Father was ten years ago in the time of Bishop Jamot Ordination at Graties.

isst report of the diocese of Peterboro' laid before the Holy Father was ten years ago in the time of Bishop Jamet Ordisaties at Grattes.

Rev. Michael Joseph Caluan was ordisade into the priesthood at Grafton, diocese of Peterboro', on Tuesday week, by his Lordship Bishop O'Comnor. The ordination service began at 9 o'clock. Among the clerky present were Venerable Archdeacon Casey, Rev. Fathers Lynch, Port Hope; Murray, Cobourg; Keitty, Douro: McCloskoy, Campbell' Grd; O'Connell, Burnley, and McColl, Ennistore. At the altar his Lordship was assisted by Venerable Archdeacon Casey, Rev. Father Muray as deacon, and Rev. Father Micray as deacon, and Rev. Father Micray as deacon, and Rev. Father Micray as deacon, and Rev. Father McColl assisted the young priest during the ordination. The Gratton church was filled to its utmost capacity by people not only from the parish of Gratco, but from Cobourg, Warkworth and peighboring parishes. The altar decorations were superb. Mirs. In Memorlam,

On the eve of the feast of the Mother of Norrows, with the first fair autumn flowers, has passed away one whose personality recalled this senson of bright ness and be auty broaded over by that spirit of sadness which forestandows carty death.

The many friends of Miss Bertie Day who have not yet heard the sad tidings of her death on Saturday, the 21st inst., will be shocked to learn that she is the person referred to. Whon Miss Day left this city last May to study professional nursing at St. Mary's Hospital, Hroaddyn, N.Y., many feared she was too fragile for the ardinous duties of the training years. And so it has been After a short attack of typhoid fover, a short attack of typhoid fover, who have the she was the first thing tritues of that kindness and medical skill could do was done. The body was brought to ber father's in Hamilton, and interred on Monday, the 23rd mst. What need to speak of the string virtues of that young fined of ours? Suffice it that they caused her to be loved and respected in life; in death loved and remombored. In the words she knew so well—words of one in whose footsteps she conscientiously followed—we want the time while.
