

silent contempt, or an appeal to the laws. They are thoroughly confident that an unprejudiced and unbiaſſed diſcuſſion of the public grounds of the preſent controverſy between Spain and this country, will redound, equally to their own, and to the national honour and intereſt.

I have the honour to ſubſcribe myſelf,

With the moſt profound reſpect,

Your Majeſty's

Moſt dutiful and

Devoted Subject,

London, June 1ſt, }
1790.

ARGONAUT.

F

To