The Course of Reading is to extend over three years, and to consist of Biblical, Historical, Doctrinal, or Apologetic studies. The character of the Course shall be optional, i.e., the subjects or branches of study may be elected by each one reading; Provided, that two subjects shall be read for each year, one to be selected at the beginning of the Course and continued throughout, and the other varied from year to year. The thoroughness of the reading will be tested by a thesis on each subject, to be assigned by the 1st of February and forwarded by the 1st of April to the Examiners; a written report of the examination of the thesis to be in the hands of the Secretary by May 1st, who shall report results to the candidates. All persons reading must send application for subject of thesis to the Secretary by January 1st, stating the year in which they are reading, the Course subject, the option selected, and the books read. Each subject should be studied in at least two authors, from a comparison of which an independent opinion may be formed; and a student must put in at least one thesis each year until the Course is completed.
