"August is a very crowded month in New York. It is the month when a greater number of strangers are in the city than any other time, and is the most pleasant time of the year to visit, as all the theatres will be started, roof gardens in full swing, and the summer resorts at their height. I should like to take care of your people, and feel sure that your excursion this year will be very successful, as you are sending them out at a good time. I may state to you that any of your people who appear at our houses with letters of introduction from you will receive pre-
