JUNCTION PORT OF ENTRY
FISCAL YEAR IS CHANGEDShamrock Lacrosse Club May Make
Tour of States—March
Vital Statistics.

Toronto Junction, March 31.—To-morrow being Easter Monday, the meeting of the town council has been postponed until Tuesday evening.

Instructions have been received from Ottawa constituting Toronto Junction a full-fledged port of entry, the fiscal year being changed from July 1st to April 1st. The following are the receipts for March, 1907: $28,815.25; for March, 1906, $19,701.33, an increase for the month of $9,113.92. For the past nine months the total receipts have been $188,711.30, and for the corresponding nine months last year $117,408.59, being an increase of $71,302.71.

A concert for the benefit of the Free Hospital for Consumptives, on the Weston-road, will be held in St. James' Hall, on Thursday evening next. A splendid program, consisting of solos, quartets, readings, etc., by local talent, has been arranged. The principal movers in the function are J. McNeil, manager of the Bank of Hamilton, and Jesse G. Wright, the druggist. The talent that have volunteered their services are as follows:

J. S. Hill, soloist; W. H. Horner, baritone; Dr. McNamara, reader; Frank Whistler, Miss Harlowe, duet; Miss Mawley, reader; Miss Middleton, soloist; Miss Andrews, soloist; Miss Ellis, soloist; Theodore Lives, accompanist.

Two brothers named John and William Churnside got off one of the Toronto railway cars last night at 7:50 o'clock, under the influence of liquor, and proceeded a short distance west on Dundas-street, making things disagreeable for pedestrians on that crowded thoroughfare to such an extent that the attention of the police was called to their actions. They were promptly arrested and taken to the cells, after a short tussle, in which one of them became plastered with mud by a fall on Dundas-street. While being searched at the police station, one of them more intoxicated than the other, attempted to assault Sergeant Peters, but was quickly put hors de combat. The sum of $142 was found on him.

The yearly vestry meetings in St. John's and St. Mark's churches will be held on Monday night.

J. McEachern, president of the champion Shamrock Lacrosse Club, is trying to arrange a tour of a number of cities of the United States.

The vital statistics of the town for March, compare favorably with last year and are as follows: March, 1907, births, 23; deaths, 11; marriages, 7. March, 1906, births, 27; deaths, 17; marriages, 6.

Arthur Fowler died yesterday morning at the home of his father, corner of St. Clair-avenue and Weston-road, thru the result of getting his feet and hands frozen five or six weeks ago. The funeral will be held at Prospect Cemetery at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

The death occurred of Mrs. Sarah McKinley of heart disease at the residence of her son, 108 Pelham-avenue. The remains will be sent to Campbellville on Tuesday morning at 8:10 o'clock.

William Redhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Redhouse of 25 Weston-avenue, died yesterday at the Gravenhurst Sanitarium. The body will be brought home by William Spears, and the funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.
