to be Levied For the Payment of Interest-Other News.

Toronto Junction, Sept. 7 .- (Spe -The Town Council held another special meeting to discuss the ulti-In addition to the council several pronirent members of the Katepayers Association, were present and expressed their views of the situation. Mayor Clendenan and all of the councillors, excepting Messrs. Gilbert and Powell, were in attendance, and after a lot of the discussion the following resolution, moved by Councillor Rice and seconded by Councillor Laughton, was carried:

moved by Councillor Rice and seconded Rice and Secon

Yeas (6)—Councillors Laughton, Bull, Goedike, Rice, Tovell and the Mayor. Nays (1)—Councillor Linton.

Councillor Linton would not vote in favor of the resolution as he did not clearly see how the council were going to live up to it when January arrives.

ing to live up to it when January arrives.

Of the ratepayers who expressed their views, Messrs Archibald Campbell, M.P., Dr. Gilmour and ex-Councillor Jesse Smith agreed with Councillor Jesse Smith agreed with Councillor Linton, while Messrs. R. L. Mc-Cormick, A. R. Fawcett, Rev. C. E. Thomson and ex-Councillor Abbott spoke favorably to the resolution.

Manager Jennings of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce said he thought it was probably the best that could be done under the circumstances. The tax rate will probably be about 28 mills, as follows: High School, 1.05; Public schools, 4.06; general town, 13.04; debentures, 8.03.

After passing a resolution of sympathy with Councillor Powell, who has been ill for a long time, the council adjourned.

OTHER JUNCTION NEWS. The disputed wages cases of Scott Morrison and James Sinclair against the Suburban Stret Railway Co. will come up before Magistrate Ellis today. "Dr." Still, who boarded at 92 George-street, Toronto, and was summoned for selling patent medicine on street corners at the Junction, is expected to appear before Magistrate Ellis to-day.

The town is full of visitors who are here for the Toronto Exhibition. Many of them were shown through the fire halls and other public buildings to-lay.

The bylaw prohibiting the riding of The bylaw prohibiting the riding of bicycles on the town sidewalks is to be more rigidly enforced. Certain latitude that has been given the bicyclists in this direction is being abused, so someone will soon be in trouble.

If anything further had been needed to completely discredit the statements of W. nexation sentiment in the Dominion, see furnished in the absolute repu has been furnished in the absolute repudiation of that journalist's sentiments by the Canadian press. Mr. Curtis has been handled without gloves by nearly every journal of any weight in the Dominion, and his arguments have been utterly demolished. The correspondent of The Chicago Record, who but a few days ago wrote with such an imperious air of gilb authority, is shown to have been either an inventive "fakir" or the victim of a coterie of anadian confidence men, who succeeded in robbing him of any pretensiou to sound journalistic judgment by the defi manner in which they made the annexation fable seem credible in his eyes. So complete has been the refutation of Mr. Curtis' silly slanders upon the people of the Dominion that in the future. If The Record means

For years The London Advertiser has been an extreme advocate of prohibition.

Now it is inclined to doubt whether total bition campaign is going to unmask a great many persons and papers that have been prohibitionists for partisan purposes only.
