

WILLIAMS PIANOS

EIGHTEENTH YEAR

NOT SHOT BY TAMMANY

English Newspapers Comment in Strong Terms ON THE NEW YORK ELECTION

Croker and His Colleagues Called Almost Everything But Honest Men.

St. James Gazette Says They Would, Sooner or Later, Find Themselves in the Criminal Dock in London—Savers of Licensee, Says The Standard—Inevitably Mean and Dirty, Says The Daily Mail—The Times Attributes the Victory to the Reaction Against McKimley.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The election in the United States continues to overshadow all the other news in the English newspapers, and the results are discussed generally at the hotels, clubs and similar places, as well as on the trains, horse cars and omnibuses.

The St. James' Gazette thinks the reason Americans allow themselves to be dominated by a clique, whose leading members would on this side of the Atlantic sooner or later find themselves in the criminal dock, is that the American politicians indulge in politics solely for what they can make out of them, and until America finds time to produce a class who will give their time to public affairs, as here, without expectation of pecuniary reward, Tammany will continue its victories.

The Daily News says: "Such an organization as Tammany could not exist in any other country, and it is an organization once proven guilty of corruption could never return to power."

The Westminster Gazette remarks: "The victory for Tammany is a grave disappointment to all believing in free institutions, and it is a warning to do as the British people did in the next campaign against a man who is almost intolerable."

The Daily Chronicle comments upon the victory of Bryan, suggesting that Mr. Bryan should stand again.

The Times says: "The Republican cause met with an ominous disaster in every quarter. It was permissible to hope a year ago that Bryanism was not only defeated, but disabled."

The Morning Post says: "Tammany's enormous majority leaves no doubt that the rumor of an arrangement between Croker and the Republicans was well founded. The Citizens' Union deserves credit for its splendid fight."

The Standard says: "Probably about 80,000 votes were given to Van Wyck by pure Tammanyites. Therefore, if all truly honest citizens had voted, Van Wyck would have been utterly defeated."

The Daily Chronicle says: "Mr. Croker may sleep better untroubled by the nightmare of indictments and prospects of the penitentiary."

The Toronto World.

TEN PAGES—THURSDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 4 1897—TEN PAGES

BOTH AFTER HIS MUTTON CAN.

While Archbishop Cleary of Kingston is fulminating managements against Protestants, as witness his outbreak in his cathedral on Sunday, Oct. 24, Archbishop Walsh is on the opposite tack. The ever-popular Dean Harris of St. Catharines has organized a Canadian Lyceum and Athletic Club, which, although intended for the immediate welfare of the young men of the Dean's congregation, will be open to all, without distinction of class or religion.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

THE TWO ARCHBISHOPS.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897.

While Archbishop Cleary of Kingston is fulminating managements against Protestants, as witness his outbreak in his cathedral on Sunday, Oct. 24, Archbishop Walsh is on the opposite tack. The ever-popular Dean Harris of St. Catharines has organized a Canadian Lyceum and Athletic Club, which, although intended for the immediate welfare of the young men of the Dean's congregation, will be open to all, without distinction of class or religion.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

DAY AFTER THE FIGHT.

Polled Nearly as Many Votes as Low and Tracy Together.

Almost Everywhere—Ohio Sticks to the Republican Column, and So Does Massachusetts—New York Papers Comment in Various Strains—McKinley Is Satisfied, So He Says, Over the General Result, and Bryan Is Hopeful.

New York State Has Returned Democrats. Almost Everywhere—Ohio Sticks to the Republican Column, and So Does Massachusetts—New York Papers Comment in Various Strains—McKinley Is Satisfied, So He Says, Over the General Result, and Bryan Is Hopeful.

New York, Nov. 3.—The result of the first municipal election in the Greater New York completely reverses the conditions of 1896, when McKinley's plurality in the same territory was 56,805. The plurality of Van Wyck, the Tammany candidate for Mayor, is about 86,000, and the balance of the ticket is elected, with majorities ranging from 76,000 to 100,000. Such a rush to the polls has never been known except in Presidential years. Rainy weather failed to dampen civic enthusiasm.

The vote for Tracy, the Republican Mayor candidate, was divided by the candidacy of Seth Low upon a citizen's ticket. Low was second and Tracy third in the count.

The George vote was inconsiderable. The death of its leader evidently disintegrated this following, and thousands evidently voted for Tammany candidates. It is claimed that young George lost many votes through the failure of his supporters to follow him to the polls.

The unofficial vote for Mayor of Greater New York follows: Van Wyck... 225,100; Low... 149,873; Tracy... 101,833; George... 20,588; Gleason... 581.

The vote for Van Wyck is about 44.25 per cent. of the total vote cast. The united vote for Low and Tracy exceeds by 14,127 more than Van Wyck received.

The Metropolitan district is normally Democratic, and the plurality for Van Wyck is a return to normal conditions in an election not influenced by national issues.

ed the following despatch from Chd. today: eat. There was not much of a wheat at here today, although the fluctua were fairly large. The elections at Canada and no markets there being rral the trading. The opening hours work, but there was good buying by riment holders, and the local show to finally admit defeat, and were the buyers at the advancers. The close tim, at 10 recovery from lowest prices. It is reported that N. K. Fairclough, a weaker, announced that he would sell 50,000 shares of land in the a visible supply. Estimated hogs to 27,000.

Market has been a narrow one, light and controlled chiefly by means of local speculators. There was selling early by elevator concerns and res, and on that side the market closed steady at about highest price day. It is reported that N. K. Fairclough, a weaker, announced that he would sell 50,000 shares of land in the a visible supply. Estimated hogs to 27,000.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

THE TWO ARCHBISHOPS.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897.

While Archbishop Cleary of Kingston is fulminating managements against Protestants, as witness his outbreak in his cathedral on Sunday, Oct. 24, Archbishop Walsh is on the opposite tack. The ever-popular Dean Harris of St. Catharines has organized a Canadian Lyceum and Athletic Club, which, although intended for the immediate welfare of the young men of the Dean's congregation, will be open to all, without distinction of class or religion.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

DAY AFTER THE FIGHT.

Polled Nearly as Many Votes as Low and Tracy Together.

Almost Everywhere—Ohio Sticks to the Republican Column, and So Does Massachusetts—New York Papers Comment in Various Strains—McKinley Is Satisfied, So He Says, Over the General Result, and Bryan Is Hopeful.

New York State Has Returned Democrats. Almost Everywhere—Ohio Sticks to the Republican Column, and So Does Massachusetts—New York Papers Comment in Various Strains—McKinley Is Satisfied, So He Says, Over the General Result, and Bryan Is Hopeful.

New York, Nov. 3.—The result of the first municipal election in the Greater New York completely reverses the conditions of 1896, when McKinley's plurality in the same territory was 56,805. The plurality of Van Wyck, the Tammany candidate for Mayor, is about 86,000, and the balance of the ticket is elected, with majorities ranging from 76,000 to 100,000. Such a rush to the polls has never been known except in Presidential years. Rainy weather failed to dampen civic enthusiasm.

The vote for Tracy, the Republican Mayor candidate, was divided by the candidacy of Seth Low upon a citizen's ticket. Low was second and Tracy third in the count.

The George vote was inconsiderable. The death of its leader evidently disintegrated this following, and thousands evidently voted for Tammany candidates. It is claimed that young George lost many votes through the failure of his supporters to follow him to the polls.

The unofficial vote for Mayor of Greater New York follows: Van Wyck... 225,100; Low... 149,873; Tracy... 101,833; George... 20,588; Gleason... 581.

The vote for Van Wyck is about 44.25 per cent. of the total vote cast. The united vote for Low and Tracy exceeds by 14,127 more than Van Wyck received.

The Metropolitan district is normally Democratic, and the plurality for Van Wyck is a return to normal conditions in an election not influenced by national issues.

ed the following despatch from Chd. today: eat. There was not much of a wheat at here today, although the fluctua were fairly large. The elections at Canada and no markets there being rral the trading. The opening hours work, but there was good buying by riment holders, and the local show to finally admit defeat, and were the buyers at the advancers. The close tim, at 10 recovery from lowest prices. It is reported that N. K. Fairclough, a weaker, announced that he would sell 50,000 shares of land in the a visible supply. Estimated hogs to 27,000.

Market has been a narrow one, light and controlled chiefly by means of local speculators. There was selling early by elevator concerns and res, and on that side the market closed steady at about highest price day. It is reported that N. K. Fairclough, a weaker, announced that he would sell 50,000 shares of land in the a visible supply. Estimated hogs to 27,000.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

Agents Wanted for town and village in Canada to sell ARMEDA CEYLON TEA. at up in one-pound tea packages. W. H. GARDNER & CO., Wholesale Agents 57 FRONT ST. EAST TORONTO.

THE TWO ARCHBISHOPS.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897.

While Archbishop Cleary of Kingston is fulminating managements against Protestants, as witness his outbreak in his cathedral on Sunday, Oct. 24, Archbishop Walsh is on the opposite tack. The ever-popular Dean Harris of St. Catharines has organized a Canadian Lyceum and Athletic Club, which, although intended for the immediate welfare of the young men of the Dean's congregation, will be open to all, without distinction of class or religion.

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Cleary, Oct. 24, 1897. "We hereby declare, with all the authority of the church vested in us as Archbishop of Kingston and your bishop, that any Catholic in our metropolitan city or diocese who shall hereafter presume to enter any non-Catholic place of education to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

Archbishop Walsh, Oct. 30, 1897. "I am glad also to see that the Lyceum and Athletic Club is not that the institution should be confined to Catholics alone, but that young men of every other denomination should be welcome to enter it, and to assist at what is termed a marriage ceremony, or for service for the performance of any religious duty, should not take any active part in the performance, and should honor himself guilty of dereliction of the religion of his fathers, and of the laws of the holy church, and of the laws of the state, and of the laws of God."

DAY AFTER THE FIGHT.

Polled Nearly as Many Votes as Low and Tracy Together.

Almost Everywhere—Ohio Sticks to the Republican Column, and So Does Massachusetts—New York Papers Comment in Various Strains—McKinley Is Satisfied, So He Says, Over the General Result, and Bryan Is Hopeful.

New York State Has Returned Democrats. Almost Everywhere—Ohio Sticks to the Republican Column, and So Does Massachusetts—New York Papers Comment in Various Strains—McKinley Is Satisfied, So He Says, Over the General Result, and Bryan Is Hopeful.

New York, Nov. 3.—The result of the first municipal election in the Greater New York completely reverses the conditions of 1896, when McKinley's plurality in the same territory was 56,805. The plurality of Van Wyck, the Tammany candidate for Mayor, is about 86,000, and the balance of the ticket is elected, with majorities ranging from 76,000 to 100,000. Such a rush to the polls has never been known except in Presidential years. Rainy weather failed to dampen civic enthusiasm.

The vote for Tracy, the Republican Mayor candidate, was divided by the candidacy of Seth Low upon a citizen's ticket. Low was second and Tracy third in the count.

The George vote was inconsiderable. The death of its leader evidently disintegrated this following, and thousands evidently voted for Tammany candidates. It is claimed that young George lost many votes through the failure of his supporters to follow him to the polls.

The unofficial vote for Mayor of Greater New York follows: Van Wyck... 225,100; Low... 149,873; Tracy... 101,833; George... 20,588; Gleason... 581.

The vote for Van Wyck is about 44.25 per cent. of the total vote cast. The united vote for Low and Tracy exceeds by 14,127 more than Van Wyck received.

The Metropolitan district is normally Democratic, and the plurality for Van Wyck is a return to normal conditions in an election not influenced by national issues.