mayoralty situation assumed a partially new phase yesterday. Mayor Shaw, stopping on the brink of a precipice, has swerved around, consents to the withdraw-al of the notice of appeal in the street railway overcrowding case, and the city is to take the case now out of Mr. Macdon- All Cars Are Being Fumigated and old's hands, and go it alone. Just whether this eleventh-hour repentance of the Mayor will guarantee him bliss remains to be seen. Had he been obdurate, he would

"Then why not drop the appeal?" asked Controller Leslie.

Ald. Burns gave the Mayor all the credit ne desired for innocence of any intention to put E. A. Macdonaid out of onsiness, out considered that in view of the approaching elections it would be untain to

Ald. Leslie, having the Mayor up the ree, took up the werring "What as the object of appealing" he asked, when the verdict was in favor of the

Mr. Fullerton: Yes, I would prefer to be unencumbered with private pleadings and with Mr. Macdonald. It Was All the Mayor Needed.

This was all the Mayor Needed.

This was all that the Mayor needed in retreating to save some of his baggage. He had now the advice of the city's counsel, of his three Controller colleagues, and last, but not least, of his friend, Mr. John Laxton, and he consented in silence.

The motion of appeal will be withdrawn, and the $200 deposit by the sometime civic appellants returned.

Mayor Shaw's Statement.

In connection with the charge against Mayor Shaw that he had unnecessarily caused an appeal to be entered in the case of Macdonald v. the City of Toronto and the Toronto Railway Company, in order to disqualify Mr. Macdonald, His Worship yesterday made the following statement to The World:

The World:
Some days ago the City Counsel, Mr.
Fullerton, asked the Mayor for instructions in this case, as it was the last day for an appeal. The Mayor replied that he would take an opportunity through the day to consult some of the members of the Board of Control, but that it was not the Intention of the Board to meet until Thursday (yesterday). The Mayor saw Ald, Hubbard the same day, and they decided, as a precautionary measure, to instruct the solicitor to lodge an appeal until such time as the Comits of the Source of the S tor to lodge an appeal until such time as the control of a the city would really do in the matter.

This was all the Mayor did, and without the slightest idea of injuring Mr. Macdonald in any way, or disqualifying him as a mayoralty candidate. Far from wishing to disqualify Mr. Macdonald, the Meyor says it is in his interests to keep him in the field, as His Worship has a much better chance when there are two candidates against him than when there is only one. Mayor Shaw, therefore, thinks that any attempt to make capital out of this position is altogether unwarranted, as he only acted from what he thought was his duty on this occasion, and not in reference to the mayoralty election.

Remembers of Bonar Presbyterian Church choir were hospitably entertained at Bonar Manse last evening by Mr. and Mrs. MacGellivray. During the evening Mr. J. H. Dundop, on behalf of the choir and friends, presented Mr. A. H. Greene, fender of the choir and organist, with an address, accompanied by a handsome dressing case, and music case, as a token of their appreciation of his efforts in the cause of church music. Mr. Greene briefly and feelingly thanked them for their kind expressions of esteem and friendship, and Bev. Mr. MacGellivray expressed in a few kind words the personal esteem he had for their leader, and the work of the choir. Before parting "Auld Lang Syne" was sung in right hearty fashlon.

MILLIONAIRE BAIN NEVER SLEPT

vard Bain, president of the Baur Wagon Company, whose death was announced yes Company, whose death was announced yesterday, was familiarly known as "the man who never siept." For the last sixteen years he has not siept an hour in his bed. Constant devotion to business was the cause of his sleeptessness. He was known to remain in his factory up to sixteen years ago as late as 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning, and when he would seek rest he found it impossible to sleep. At that time he practically relieved himself of business cares.

For the greater part of the last ten years it was his custom to take daily trips to Chicago to pass the time away in street car uding. At night he was aways to be found either at a theatre or billiard hall which were the only places where he was able to get a short nap, the music at the theatres and the cacking of the billiard balls alone bulling him to sleep.

What Bothered aid. Hanlan.
Ald. Hanlan came down to the Hall yesterday morning, perspiring after a canvas of the night before. "Dear, O dear," said he, using his strongest oath, "if Mayor Shaw and Ald. Hubbard had gone through the ward with me last night, they would have been killed."

E. A. Squares Matters.

Mr. Macdonald fortified himself yesterday against any further coups by appearing at the City Selicitor's office and paying off sundry small judgments held by the city against him.

Mew York Board of Health to-day expressed the opinion that the city would be fully able to control the epidemic of grip which had entered so many homes, and whose ravages have disturbed to such a remarkable extent the course of public bisiness. "Now, about that appeal," said His Worship, at the Board or Control, Thie expectant controllers needed no explanation as to what appeal was meant, and the Mayor went on to explain himself.

"In the case of Macdonald v. Toronto finaliway Company," he went on, "the time for appealing expired Wednesday, Mr. Fullerton advised me to that effect. I saw Ald. Hubbard; we talked it over, and agreed that, as a precautionary measure, it would be prudent to instruct the City Solicitor, pending a meeting of the Board of Control."

Mayor Denfes it Firity.

"You had no idea of tying Macdonald up, had you, Mr. Mayor?" asked Ald, Burns.

The Mayor: We're not forcing him at all, it was simply a precantionary move.

Hubbrard Says Cheap, das.

Thea. Ald, Hubbard came to Mayor Shaw's rescue, with Shakegneare to help him. "If you were as chaste as ice and as pure as glow you wouldn't escape heartrending. The Controller, however, berrowed his way out to daylight again by coming out boildly in favor of having the city lake up the case. In explanation of his change of heart, he recalled his position on the Gas Company case, in which he had wished to have the city go plaintiff and "I think," he added, "that you were formed to have the city go plaintiff and "I think," he added, "that you have company the company case, in which he had wished to have the city go plaintiff and "I think," he added, "that you have choosed the suffernment of the suff.
