PORT STANLEY TAKING ON WINTER GARMENTS

Little Sign of Summer Crowds Seen at Week-End.

"It's not what it used to be." Thus was the ejaculation of one of the passengers as he stepped off the 8:15 car at Port Stanley Saturday evening. The popular summer resort lost its air of activity Saturday evening, and the casino was the only place frequented. Only a small crowd was present at the lakeside, and almost everyone who did journey to the place for the purpose of dancing farewell dances left early on account of the drearness of the surroundings or of the chilly weather. The booths along the boardwalk were closed and all the amusement places had either been taken down or closed up, and the only one remaining was the boxball alley.

Summer Has Gone.

When one got off the car at the beach Saturday evening and started down the walk to the casino it brought back the scenes of last winter. The wind was blowing, the lake was rough and the air was cold, three factors responsible for everyone seeking refuge in the dance hall and the usual throngs of merrymakers which formerly paraded the walk as well as the "beachers" were no place in evidence. place in evidence.

Sunday also was dreary, and although the sun shone brightly throughout the day, people did not take advantage of the fact and did not make their usual Sunday visit to the lake. The crowds of Sunday visitors who formerly went to the lakeside were absent yesterday, and with the exception of a few people, the Usual Concert.

The usual afternoon concert was given by the Casino Orchestra and proved successful as far as music was concerned, but hardly any audience was on hand. About a dozen persons were in bathing and pronounced the water warm, but the air very cool.

Although the place is not being frequented to any great extent the casino will continue to remain open until about will continue to remain open until about next Saturday when it will close for the season. The L. and P. BOYS IN EARN AND GIVE CAMPAIGN HAVE TURNED IN $1,182 BY HARD WORK ably Will Be Raised, This is the last month of the Earn and Give Campaign, in which 250 young lads of this city agreed to make and pay the sums of $10 each to help carry on the war work of the Y. M. C. A. This is in connection with the national effort to have 6.000 boys earn and give $60,000 to have 6.000 boys earn and give $60,000 throughout the Dominion.

During the summer the boys have been working on farms, in factories, or at any work obtainable to earn their $10, and apart from the value of the money raised by them for the needs of the soldiers overseas, the sacrifice made by the boys has meant a great deal, many of the boys having to deprive themselves of the best part of their holidays to keep up with their agreement.

One boy in particular told of having walked down one of the main streets in Detroit with the exact $10 in his pocket, and when he returned to London he still had it to pay. From that it is easily seen that the boys have done wonderfully well, and are in earnest.

The boys of this city have so far turned in $1,182.10. The books show that up to date 100 boys have paid their $10 up in full. The remainder have paid part, and are still doing odd jobs to earn the necessary amount.

The local committee, of which E. E. Reid is chairman, is making a special effort to have 90 per cent of the total amount in by September 15. The campaign does not close until October 1, but the national committee is offering a beautiful silk flag to the city securing the highest percentage of its total by September 15, and London is going to make a strong bid to win that flag.
