Increasing the Value of a Gift Add tasteful distinctiveness to an article and you increase its gift value without changing its intrinsic value.
Where numerous gifts are grouped there are two qualities which stand individual gifts apart—overapparent costliness and distinctiveness. For one purpose money alone is required. For the other taste and discrimination. Distinctiveness may be found in a small, less expensive article as well as in higher-priced goods. We have both for your choice.

berta George, Marguerite Johnston,

Gray, Annie Cohen, Elsie Arthur, Mrs.
P. J. McKay, Edie Orr, Marie Forbes,

BASEBALL NIGHT TONIGHT AT LOEW'S.
The London team will be guests of Loew's tonight and a capacity house should greet the return of the "Conquering Heroes." They have been winning some ball games and are due to bring home the pennant to London.
Let's all be out tonight to greet the "boys," and show our appreciation.
"Bill" Moore will in charge of the ceremonies and promises some real new patter that should put the house in a riot.

"EVERYWOMAN" AT THE GRAND.
"Everywoman" has been attracting large and delighted audiences at every performance at the Grand this week.
"Everywoman" will be presented twice conjunction with a prologue and fashion show. The prologue, as presented by Mr. Robert Hannan and his splendid supporting company, is one of the features of the performance. The film version of "Everywoman" has been filmed upon a most elaborate scale.
Larry Semon will be seen at the Grand for the remainder of the week.
In his latest concoction, entitled, "Solid Concrete," will also be featured.

DOUBLE PROGRAM AND ORGAN RECITAL AT LILL—JACK PICK-FORD AND ETHEL CLAYTON.
Presented at the Allen today, tomorrow and Saturday will be a great special request, "The Hells of St.
Bill," will also be featured of the double program, headed by Ethel Clayton in "Vicky Van," a society picture set in New York. Jack Pickford in "The Double-Dyed Deceiver," and a special organ recital by Mr. Ireland, who will play "The Rosemary," "Tullip Time," from the 1919 Follies, and by Maries.

ENTIRE CHANGE OF PROGRAM AT MAJESTIC TODAY.
The Haines Musical Stock Company present their second offering to the people of London at the Majestic today, tomorrow and Saturday. "Two Fools There Were," one of those sparkling amusing songs and much catching music, following a broad theme of gay life of dances, parties and happiness, surrounded by all the luxuries that wealth can provide, as Vicky Van. Miss Clayton has exceptional opportunities to display to full advantage that marvelous beauty and charm which has made her one of the most popular young stars of the screen.

Jack Pickford as "The Double-Dyed Deceiver," has the role of a two-gun Texas terror, who, feeling to South America, encounters for the first time the love of good people and of an innocent young girl. It's a real novelty to this young desperado, and as the Llando Kid, hard living, hard fighting, Pickford hands many a surprise and thrill in his newest picture.
Allen News and special comedies complete the program.

HAIL "THE BANDBOX" AS DORIS KENYON'S GREATEST TRIUMPH.
Reviewers Acclaim Beautiful Star's Artistry in Gripping Louis Joseph Vance Story.

"The Bandbox," starring Doris Kenyon, the Deitrich-Beck, Inc. production of Louis Joseph Vance's gripping story, which comes to the Patricia Theatre, beginning today, Friday and Saturday, is beyond question the greatest screen achievement of the beautiful star, in the opinion of several of New York's most prominent reviewers. "The Band-box," a human, fascinating mystery drama, reveals Miss Kenyon as an even greater artist than when she left the speaking stage at the height of her popularity to win added fame in cinema realism.

In this big Hodkinson release, Miss Kenyon is once more given the opportunity to tighten her hold upon the thousands who adored her on the stage and who have been the most loyal of her followers ever since her first appearance on the silver sheet, by reason of a role that no other actress could handle as Doris Kenyon does. All those qualities which first brought her fame and which she displays in "The Bandbox," with compelling effect. A wonderful romance runs through the Louis Joseph Vance story and an odd instance of how an innocent girl may be legitimately exploited until she comes to realize just how serious the deception is—this is the foundation of the gripping vehicle.
Laughter, tender smiles, a tear now and then, with a sweeping climax, make up the guaranteed success of the new Kenyon production.

MAJESTIC TODAY.
The Haines Musical Stock Company
present their second offering to the people of London at the Majestic today,
tomorrow and Saturday. "Two Fools
amusing songs and much catching music, following a broad theme of humor, mark this new piece. In an entire change of costumes, the beauty chorus will present new dances and new colors to charm the eye, and there will also be an entire change of scenery.

The vaudeville specialties are also a marked feature of the Majestic program, introducing some of the latest novelties from the American vaudeville stage.
The success of the Haines Musical Stock Company has been remarkable.
Of course, it is an A-1 company, and that means a lot, but their success is well deserved, for their costumes are new and clean, their productions standard successes, and their chorus and principals all young and clever entertainers. There never has been a comedian in town like Nat Haines. His dry humor serves to keep the audience in chuckling anticipation of his next stunt.
Presented on this program also for today, tomorrow and Saturday will be Pauline Frederick in her latest photoplay feature, "One Week of Life," with a special comedy.
