Mr. Balfour will probably reply and a friendly response is taken for granted.

The Liberal press announces, and there is no apparent reason to doubt the accuracy of the statement, that the conference was decided upon at the suggestion of King George. If so, he is following two well-known precedents which Queen Victoria established when she proposed to Mr. Gladstone to employ the same means to harmonize the ntago 'ms aroused by the Iris Church Act about 1870 and the Franchise Act in 1884. It is assumed that King George, like his grandmother, did not suggest any special method of procedure, leaving the settlement of de-
