WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.

Winnipeg, Aug. 30.—The market was quiet today and the situation little changed from Wednesday. Cash wheat prices remained steady and all offerings, which were small, were promptly absorbed. The demand for cash oats was fairly good, but little was offered. Price spreads were unchanged to ½c higher. Cash barley manifested a lower tendency and flax was quiet. Trading for future delivery was confined chiefly to oats and fax, but the volume of business done was not large. Oats prices remained steady around yesterday's quotations. October and November flax opened higher than yesterday, but sagged during the session. There were a few transactions in October wheat at ½c better than Thursday's closing price. Trading for future delivery in wheat ceases on the Winnipeg exchange tomorrow. Cash wheat closed at $2.40 for No. 1 Northern, and other grades were unchanged.

October wheat closed at ½c better than yesterday's closing price: October oats ½c up. December ½c higher and May ½c up.
October flax closed unchanged, November ½c higher and December closed 1c up.
