Deadlock in American Assn. Chicago, May 22.—When the club owners of the American Association met on Tuesday, in an effort to deter-mine whether to abandon the scheduled interleague series with the International Jeague, they were still dead-locked. Final action on the question was prevented on Monday by the absence of O. H. Wathen of the Louisville club.

Ramblers Win Championship The Ramblers won the deciding gam in the series with the Tigers last even-ing and incidentally clinched the championship of the City Bowling League. The game was interesting and was witnessed by a record breaking crowd. The scores follow: Ramblers. Ramblers.
