

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"ROB ROY" PACKED IMPERIAL THEATRE

Sir Walter Scott's Great Romance Charming Picture and Real Novelty—Piper and Scotch Songs.

The Imperial is again sending its programme to the celebration of a national feast day, today the feast of St. Andrew, patron saint of Bonnie Scotland. With Sir Walter Scott's immortal romance, "Rob Roy," as its beautifully scenic and thrillingly dramatic pictorial feature—a picture done in the highlands of the old land itself—it will be hard for any true son or daughter of the land of the thistle to stay away. Alec Campbell, pipe-major of the Fife and Forth, is there, too, with realistic effects; the orchestra is entirely devoted to Scotch music today and tomorrow, and Kathryn Gallivan never sang more sweetly than she did last night in "Annie Laurie" and "Within A Mile O' Edinboro' Town." Marvellous week-end show for the whole family.
