RECENT WEDDINGS

Butler-Driscoll.
In St. Andrew's church, Newcastle on Tuesday, Sept. 16, John Butler of Sydney (C.B.) and Miss Elizabeth Driscoll of Newcastle (N.B.), were married by the rector, the Rev. W. J. Bate. The groom is a returned war veteran, having served in France with the 25th Nova Scotia battalion and was twice wounded, at Vimy and Passchendaele.

Clouston-Miller.
A very pretty wedding took place in St. Andrew's church rectory, Newcastle, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17, when the rector, the Rev. W. J. Bate, joined together in wedlock Sydney Boucher Clouston of Lower Derby, and Miss Eva Norma Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis J. Miller of Millbank. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Amanda Barron of Lower Derby, and Elwin Drillon of Upper Nelson. Many friends gathered to witness the ceremony and to extend felicitations to the newly married couple, after which the whole party proceeded in automobiles to Millbank for the wedding festivities.

Livingston-Harper.
Moncton, N.B., Sept. 18.—(Special).—Miss Grace Harper, formerly of Shediac, but for some time past residing with her mother, Mrs. Charles Harper, in this city, was married to Rev. Grover Livingston, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Grand Mere (Que.), in St. John's Presbyterian church, at 8.30 o'clock this afternoon.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. D. Talbot and Miss Talbot, Bermuda; Mr. and D. S. Campbell, Sackville; Mrs. George Harper, Winnipeg; Allan Harper, Belleville (Ont.); Miss Eva Tucker, Bermuda; Miss Florence Harper, Washington; Mrs. F. Smith, Dean Smith, Mrs. D. S. Harper and the Misses Harper, Shediac (N.B.).

Vallis-Burgess.
A nuptial event of much social interest in that part of the province as well as in St. John and elsewhere was solemnized at 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning at New Jerusalem, Queens county, when Miss Margaret Florence Burgess, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Burgess, became the bride of Edward Caswell Vallis, son of E. D. Vallis, of Inghy in the same parish. The ceremony was performed in the Methodist church, near the bride's home, by Rev. L. J. Laird of Berwick (N.B.), assisted by Rev. A. Whiteside.

Whittaker-Miller.
A very largely attended wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Miller, of Centreton, when the Rev. R. P. McKim, rector of St. Luke's church, St. John, united in marriage, Miss Margaret Eleanor Miller and Otty Whittaker, of Holderville, on Wednesday, September 10 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Bride and groom were unattended. A host of friends extended good wishes to the happy pair. After the serving of a wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker left for an automobile wedding tour. On their return they will make their home at Holderville.

Dalton-Beckwith.
Newcastle, Sept. 17.—The marriage took place in the Methodist, Chatham, Monday morning of one of our young merchants, Fred. V. Dalton, to Mary B. Beckwith, of Chatham. The ceremony was performed by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary. After the ceremony the happy pair left on a wedding trip to Montreal, Ottawa and other Canadian cities.

Marr-Kaye.
The marriage of Miss Bernice Lowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Kaye, Moncton, and George J. Marr, of St. Martin's, took place on Wednesday at the residence of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Percy Coulliburst, assisted by Rev. J. E. Sissam. The out of town guests included Harold Reus and Mrs. Stewart Henry, of St. John. They happy couple left on a honeymoon to Charlottetown, thence to St. Andrews, where the groom is the principal of the high school.

King-Gordon.
Collins, N. B., Sept. 10.—At the home of the bride, and in the presence of only the nearest relatives, Mrs. Emily R. Gordon was united in marriage to Leonard C. King. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Gosline. The father of the bride, Robert Stewart, who is home after thirty years in the far west, was present on this occasion.

Dunham-Thorne.
At the Baptist parsonage, 185 Victoria street, Harry Dunham and Gertrude Thorne, both of St. John, were united in marriage on September 17, by the Rev. G. D. Dunham. They were unattended.

Braydo-Williams.
At the Baptist parsonage, 185 Victoria street on September 18, Frederick Braydo, of St. John, and Mrs. Lillian C. Williams, of Central Greenwich, were united in marriage by Rev. G. D. Dunham. They were unattended.

A Double Wedding.
A pretty double wedding took place at Flatlands, Restigouche county, on Sept. 17, when Rev. W. Camp united in marriage Miss Alexandra Ferguson to Irvine Bigelow of Detroit, and Miss Olive Margaret Howell of Littlehampton, Eng., was married to Gerald Ray Ferguson of Flatlands.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Benjamin R. Tucker.
Moncton, N.B., Sept. 18.—(Special).—The death of Mrs. Benjamin R. Tucker occurred at her home on Wednesday evening. Deceased was thirty years of age and leaves her husband and one little daughter, also mother, father, four sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Ansley Boutiller, Mrs. Robert J. Hoar, Miss Ella Molins and Miss Kathleen Molins; the brothers are Clifford A. Molins, Jack F. Molins and George Molins, all of whom, with the exception of Clifford, were at the bedside of their sister when death came. A sad feature is that Clifford Molins is away on his wedding tour. A telegram was sent in an endeavor to intercept him at Portland (Me.) but it was found that he was on a steamer and could not be located.

Arriving in Minneapolis to attend the Minnesota State Fair, Chief Ka-Ba-Na-Wey-Wence, meaning "wrinkled meat," seated on the floor of his hotel, announced that he is 180 years old and desired to make immediately a trip in an airplane.

Four Masterpieces

It has been said of Josiah Wedgwood in the experimental days of his early career that he made many pieces that were never offered to the public—"only his masterpieces went to market."

This may or may not be true, but the fact is applicable to, at any rate, four of the best known makes of English China. Crown Derby, Minton, Coalport, or Wedgwood—each form a special showing in our Art Department.

In the Crown Derby our selection includes some very exclusive pieces in the famous "128" and "840" patterns of which we have the exclusive sale.

The other patterns are too well known to need description—but if there are any who as yet are unfamiliar with either of these patterns, we shall be glad to show them specimens and to give them every assistance in the matter of selection.

A Wedding Gift of China always ranks high amongst the Household Treasures.
