BEST OF BRITISH EMIGRANTS ARE NOT FOR CANADA

South Africa and South Sea
Dominions are Securing
Them—Canadian Propaganda
Not Direct Enough.

(By H. S. Merton, Special Correspondent of The Toronto Evening Telegram) London, Dec. 1.—The subject of emigration is occupying a good deal of attention in English papers at present. There are still a good many nifty checked, well groomed Englishmen who will ask you how is the shooting in Canada, and a good many antiquated Englishmen who will speak of the colonies in spite of Bonar Law's assertion that the Dominions sprang into maturity during the war. But the long spell of unemployment in Great Britain has turned the thoughts of a great many to the idea that perhaps England is over-populated.

It was all right before the war, when the world ran smoothly and England had a domination of world trade and industry, but now it is felt that unemployment must be faced for a long time. Government aid by way of grant and bonus may relieve it somewhat, but it must always be at the expense of the taxpayer. Therefore, emigration is coming into a prominent light.

Now this is really another form of the old idea that the colonies are a place to get rid of our undesirable.
Ramsay MacDonald, in his speech today said that men who were earning 50 per week in the Clyde shipyards a couple of years ago could not be expected to turn into satisfactory or contented workmen doing road work at a much lower figure.

Canada's Problem.
That is quite true. Neither would they be satisfactory or contented in

The following recipes are put in with the hope that they will prove of service and make this page one to be looked forward to each Friday.

ROAST GOOSE WITH STUFFING
Select a goose of suitable size for the number to be served. One pound to a person is usually allowed. Dress and clean goose by scrubbing it inside and outside with soda water. Rinse in boiling water and dry; stuff and sew up or skewer. Rub with flour, salt and pepper, mixed. Place breast down in a roasting pan. Baste with the drippings; after the first hour, add 1 cup of water. Turn breast one side down in a roasting pan. For an 8-pound goose, allow 4 hours in a slow oven. Skim off most of the fat in the pan and make gravy by adding 1 cup white sauce, stirring until well mixed and then adding hot water gradually to make of right consistency.

MASHED POTATO STUFFING
2 cups mashed potatoes, highly seasoned with salt and pepper
1/2 cup chopped, parboiled onions

2 tablespoons melted fat
1/4 teaspoon sage
2 egg yolks
Mix ingredients in order given.

TO GARNISH GOOSE
If potato or bread stuffing is used, arrange red steamed apples around the goose. To steam the apples, place with the skins on in a perforated dish over boiling water. Steam until cooked. Remove and chill. Carefully remove skins, being careful to leave the red pulp nearest the skin on the apple. Scrape skins so as to remove all pulp and return to apples. They should be a beautiful red.

FRUIT SALAD
2 oranges
8 bananas
1/2 pound malaga grapes
4 slices pineapple, cubed
12 walnuts

Mix fruit and serve salad dressing on top, or add fruit salad dressing to moisten. Mix with whipped cream or fruit salad dressing or salad dressing only. May be served in orange cups.

WALDORF SALAD
1 cup cubed apple
1 cup celery
1 cup nut meats
Salad dressing to moisten
Cut slices from tops of green or red apples; scoop out the inside pulp, leaving just enough to hold the skin in place. Fill the shells with the salad mixture and serve on lettuce leaves. A little salad dressing may be put on top of each.

FRUIT COCKTAIL
1/2 can white cherries
1/2 can sliced pineapple
8 oranges

6 bananas
1/2 pkgs Sun Maid Raisins
Cut all very small. Mix together and pour over them juice from pineapples and cherries. Serve very cold in cocktail glasses.

FRUIT IMPERIAL
1/4 cup cold water
1/4 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons flour
6 rounds stale cake
6 halves canned peaches
1 1/2 cups peach syrup or hot water
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped Sun Maid Raisins.
Arrange cake on serving dish and place 1/2 peach on each. Bring syrup and water to boiling point. Mix sugar, flour and salt until smooth with cold water. Add to boiling syrup, stirring constantly. Add raisins. Cook slowly 10 minutes. Pour over cake and peaches. Serve hot or cold.

Canada where a higher wage earned does not represent a higher wage saved, the living conditions being so different in the two countries. That is something Canada must protect herself against. It is not a question of bringing out settlers. It is a question of bringing out people who will be capable of finding work and not be thrown on our own unemployment lists.

Going to Antipodes.
South Africa and Australia are attracting a much better class of immigrant than Canada. I know of hundreds of officers, for example, who have gone to these countries, taking a considerable stake with them, particularly to South Africa, Rhodesia and New Zealand. I have yet to learn of one of this type who has gone to Canada. These other Dominions will be settled entirely by British, and a very good type of British.

I am afraid that our Canadian scheme, in its avoidance of glutting the labor market in Canada, will eventually fall back on the old resort of bringing in so-called "hand-picked" Scandinavians and Central Europeans, to the benefit of the steamship companies.

South Africa Picks Them.
It is the South African emigration which is really hand-picked and British hand-picked as well. Only moneyed settlers can go there, and they go to virgin land, too. There must be a more active campaign from

These Dominions than there is from our own.
The decorating of Dominion windows with beavers and maple sugar and the distribution of literature does not catch the right class of settler.
By Personal Canvass.
The South African Government propaganda is supplemented by vigorous canvassing of private land companies. These representatives have offices in London, join clubs here, mix in good classes and unfold to people with means the prospects of their country. London clubs are the meeting ground of well-to-do people, who come to town from the country. These people, who were well circumstanced before the war, want to invest their money somewhere overseas before it runs out. It is this class which South Africa is getting through private companies, and this provincial class is not reached by advertisements distributed in London, Liverpool and Glasgow. These companies, by the way, act with the co-operation of their government. Their London representatives are chosen as a rule from ex-officers or men who had an English connection through the war or otherwise.
Lots of Farming Yet.
Again it is said that there are no agriculturists left in England who will come out. That statement is accepted as a matter of fact, but it is not completely true. I was talking to a Yorkshire land-owner the other day and he stated that on nearly all the farms the boys learnt farming until seventeen to eighteen years of age, and then went to the factory town, attracted by the higher wages. These men, although factory workers, are trained agriculturists, now idle, and by co-operation with the British Government could easily be traced up and induced to go on the farm.

FAIR WAGE LAWS ASKED IN ONTARIO

(Canadian Press Despatch).
Toronto, Dec. 28.—Representatives of the Toronto Building Trades Council waited on Premier E. C. Drury, Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of public works, and Hon. Walter Rolfe, minister of labor, today with a request that the Ontario government enact fair wage legislation along the lines adopted by the federal government on June 7, 1922, only, instead of by order-in-council similar to the federal government's action, statutory legislation be asked for. The end sought is to "protect the worker against the savorious encroachments of the unfair employer."
