SAILORS DEFEATED BY THE VICTORIAS

A SPLendid GAME AT THE CANTEN GROUND. Citizens Won by Three Goals to Nil - Victoria West Beat Nanaimo at Basketball.

Under the circumstances the Association football between the Victoria team and an eleven selected from the crew of H. M. S. Flora, which was played on Saturday afternoon at the Canteen grounds, was exceptionally fast.

The playing area was not soft the for-wards would have been able to get away quicker, and the result would have been as interesting a game as has been played on local grounds.

The muddy condition of the grounds handicapped the sailors particularly, undoubtedly their strong point is the speed of their forwards.

A large crowd of sailors from the ships in port and a number of civilians had gathered on the 15th from the progress of the game.

At the Caledonia grounds on Saturday afternoon a match was played between the senior and intermediate teams.
