Professor LAFLAMME.

Students who avail themselves of the privilege of attending two years only, will, nevertheless, be required to pass an examination in the subjects comprised in the three years course.)

Occasional Students will be received without matriculation, for attendance on any particular series of Lectures; and Students in the Faculty of Arts will be permitted to attend any of the courses, on such terms and conditions as may be fixed by that faculty.

The matriculation fee is ten shillings, payable only by Students who have not previously matriculated in any other faculty. The annual fee for the full course of Lectures is fixed for the present at three pounds ten shillings; for attendance on any one series of Lectures one pound five shillings per annum, and the fee on graduation, including diploma is one pound five shillings.

Students who have completed their course of three years; or of two years, if they have commenced in the fourth year of their indentures; and have passed a satisfactory examination, will be entitled, upon the certificate and recommendation of the Law Faculty, to the Degree of Bachelor of Civil Law.

Applications for admission may be made to the Dean of the Faculty, or to the Secretary of the College.
