FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Sun's usual weekly St. John market quotations are unavoidably omit ted this morning. COUNTRY MARKET.

There is no change in the prices of meats, eggs and butter, except the customary slight fluctuations from day to day. In poultry there is a wide range in the value of chickens offered, and turkeys come high. A woman last week had a very fine turkey in market and asked 25c. per lb. for the bird. She finally sold it for considerably less. Turnips in barrels are away down in price. Parsnips in bunches are now on the market. Peas and beans are higher and apparently scarce. Tomatos are cheaper. Some native apples are offered at about $1 per bushel.

FISH. The schooner L. M. Ellis arrived on Monday with about 400 qtls. cod and pollock, and the Weenona with about 100 qtls. The medium cod sold higher ex-vessel at $3.40, and the pollock lower at $1.50. Both large and medium cod are higher ex store, and since the new definition of medium cod excludes all under 16 inches, the latter are now quoted as "small," and range at about $2.90 to $3. Smoked fish are easy. New fat shad are now being barrelled, and are of first quality. They are quoted at $6 per hf. bbl. Some fresh halibut was brought in by the L. M. Ellis, and she also brought a small lot of fresh haddock to Leonard Bros.

GRAIN, SEEDS, HAY, ETC. There is a reduction in oats, owing to new stock coming in. Old Ontario oats are held at the former figure, but new stock is cheaper. Beans are higher as well as new ones, call and see the on bad crop reports. The rest of the stock, whether wishing to buy or lis is without change.

GROCERIES There is a firmer feeling in sugar. Cream of tartar is down a fraction Nutmegs are easier. The general list is quiet and unchanged.

SATOLLI'S POSITION.

The Papal Ablegate Will Not See Reporters as to the Rumor Concerning Him.

Washington, Aug. 19.-Monsignor satolli, the papal ablegate, has decided to maintain silence as to the statement regarding him that the pope will soon make the ablegate's authority. absolute and sovereign, and answerable only to the pope. Mgr. Satolli has given instructions to those at his resilence not to admit reporters or to permit any cards of newspaper men to be taken to him or to Dr. Papi, his private secretary. This action, taken in conection with his rule to allow no persons' cards to be taken to him at his residence after noon on any day makes it almost impossible to gain any authentic information concerning the action of the ablegate.

THE PRESS IN PERSIA.

Since the shah's return to Persia after his last visit to Europe he has established a vuraret-i-intibaut, or ministry of the press. There are now about a dozen newspapers in Persia, the leading journals being the Akhtar and the Kanoun, printed in Constantinople and London, on account of the Persian suspicion of any statement made directly from Teheran. The chief native paper is the Iran. Every leading article begins with the words: 'Thanks to the ability of the governor of the province of —, the country s prosperous and the people contented, all of them offering up prayrs for his majesty." Then there are three political journals, the Itila, the Terenk, and the Terehan, which consider the affairs of Europe and translate historical and philosophical works. They constantly use French. English, and Russian phrases. There is also an historical journal, the Shere, devoted to printing the portraits and biographies of the governors of Persia and the leadgious paper, the Zoai-Shams, published at Ourmiah, by the Protestant missionaries. The Akhtar is a pan-Islamist, and the Kanoun goes in generally for the political and religious regeneration of Persia. The professors of the rolytechnic school of Teheran tried to escablish a scientific journal, but it falled.
