Synopsis of Canadian North-west Land Regulations

Any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—The month's residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may preempt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $300 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead rights and cannot obtain a preemption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $300 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $200.00.

A ROYAL ROMANCE.

Prince Alfonso Loses Title for Love of Princess Beatrice, of Sax-Cobourg.

MADRID, July 18.—The marriage of the Infante Alfonso of Bourbon-Orleans, and Princess Beatrice of Sax-Cobourg, for which the Prince has been deprived of his title as an Infante of Spain, was the sequel of a romance, the details of which have just been learned. Prince Alfonso recently was breveted a lieutenant and was anxious to proceed to Mexico, to which place Spain is sending large detachments of troops. While the mobilization of his brigade was in progress, the Prince hurried to Paris to visit his mother, the Princess Euclais and from there went to Cobourg to say good-bye to Princess Beatrice to whom he was betrothed.

Instead of farewells, there was a marriage ceremony, both civil and religious. Although the decree of disinheritance, which strips the Prince of his title and Spanish honors and decorations is based on his marriage without royal consent, it is understood the King opposed the union because the Princess declined to change her religious faith.

AWFUL DEED OF LUNATIC

Escapes From Asylum and Slays Farmer

Declares His Victim Threw Acid in His Eyes

ABINGTON, Mass., July 18.—Returning to the farm on which he had one time worked, Lawrence Nelson, Jr., an escaped lunatic, met his former employer, Desire A. Vanderpool, a wealthy farmer of West Abington, watering flowers in his door-yard, and fired four shots at him, three of which took effect in vital parts, causing almost instant death. One of the bullets entered Vanderpool's head, another the neck and the third was located in the abdomen. Nelson then walked off with the smoking revolver in his hand and after telling several people that he had shot a man, accented two young men riding in a carriage and asked to be driven to the Brockton police station, saying that he had shot a man and wished to give himself up. The boys, thoroughly frightened, complied, and Nelson was locked up in Brockton.

When asked by the Brockton police why he committed the crime, Nelson according to the police, said: "I won't stand for any man throwing acid over me while I am working." Nelson worked as a farm-hand at the Vanderpool farm for three days last March, leaving because he said he had a better job. He is believed to have escaped from an insane asylum at Concord, N. H., and said his home was in Nashua, N. H.

ARRIVED LAST MARCH.

Nelson first arrived in town last March, when he came to the farm of Geo. P. Wiggins, where he was employed as a farm-hand. He was there for three days last March, leaving because he said he had a better job. He is believed to have escaped from an insane asylum at Concord, N. H., and said his home was in Nashua, N. H.

This morning Nelson appeared at the house of Solomon Reed on Hanover street, and was taken to the Vanderpool farm. There he talked with Reed and two neighbors, Michael Gorman and John W. H. Harrison, who were ascertaining that "the old man," meaning Vanderpool, was at home. Nelson started off towards the farm.

FOUR SHOTS FIRED.

Hardly had the three neighbors resumed their Sunday morning chat when four shots, fired in quick succession, were heard from the direction of the Vanderpool farm. Running towards the yard the three beheld Nelson walking leisurely out to the road with the smoking revolver swinging aimlessly by his side. Nelson avoided the men who, upon entering the yard, found Vanderpool dying near his doorstep with his head resting in his wife's lap. In this position he expired a few minutes later. The men then started off on the track of the murderer.

The reports of the shots, breaking in upon the Sunday peace and quiet of the neighborhood, caused a great commotion and as Nelson walked down the road he was seen and spoken to by many of the residents.

At the house of Elias Blanchard, next to Vanderpool's, Nelson was met by Blanchard and his wife, who asked him what the trouble was. Holding up to view the revolver which he still clutched in his hand, Nelson said that he had just shot Vanderpool. Blanchard then said: "Don't you know what that means? You'll get arrested." He then walked off, while Nelson continued to walk towards the house and telephoned Chief of Police Holmes of Abington and Medical Examiner Ollman Ogadog of Woodland.

As he passed the house of Lester Blanchard, Mrs. Blanchard was at the door. Nelson stopped, and placing the revolver in his pocket for the first time since it had been used with such deadly effect, said: "The trouble is that I have shot a man."

It was a little further beyond this house that the three men who had started off on his trail caught up with him. By that time two other men, James Gorman and Julius Rootgans, employed at the Vanderpool farm, had joined them. When the five men approached Nelson he turned about and faced them and taking out the revolver, warned them to keep back or he would get what Vanderpool got. He then ran into the woods, coming out at Greenwood where he met two young men, Fred E. Donaghue and Carl Nash, both of Brockton, driving in the direction of that city. Nelson stopped them and, saying that he had shot a man, asked to be taken to the Brockton police station, as he wanted to give himself up. The young men very unwillingly allowed him to enter the carriage and drove to the police station at Brockton, where he was locked up.

THE HIGHEST YET.

DOUE, France, July 18.—Paulhan today beat the world's aeroplanes record for height, held by Wilbur Wright. He made a flight at an altitude of about 450 feet. The previous record was 380 feet.

FERNHILL SCENE OF IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

Monument to Late Gunner Harvey

MILITIA PRESENT

Service Conducted by Archdeacon Raymond—Handsome Stone

The monument to the memory of Frederick David Harvey, gunner in No. 1 Battery, 3rd Regiment C. A., who was run over and killed by the Ocean Limited at Cedar Hall, Que., on August 11 last, was unveiled with appropriate ceremony at Fernhill cemetery yesterday afternoon. The 3rd Regiment Artillery under the command of Lt. Col. Baxter, attended in a body, as also did officers and men from the 2nd, St. John Fusiliers. Reverend Archdeacon Raymond, chaplain of the Artillery, assisted by Rev. Chas. W. Squires of Carmarthen street Methodist Church, who had been the pastor of the dead Artilleryman, conducted the brief but impressive services.

The Artillery and Fusiliers, about three hundred and fifty strong, paraded at the Burdock Square and headed by the Artillery Band, marched to Fernhill. Many hundreds of citizens followed the militia to the cemetery, where about five hundred were present when the monument was unveiled.

The troops on reaching Fernhill formed in hollow square about the grave. The monument draped with a Union Jack was in the centre. A funeral march was played by the band, after which there were Scripture readings by the three clergymen, followed by prayer. Those present, led by the Artillery Band, sang "Nearer My God to Thee." The band also played the accompaniment for Peace, Perfect Peace, which was sung by a special quartette. The monument was unveiled by Major W. H. Harrison, commanding officer of the battery to which the deceased belonged. Major Harrison in a brief address, alluded to the dead soldier's popularity among his comrades and also touched upon the circumstances of the accident which resulted in Harvey's death. At the close of the service, the 3rd Regiment drew the cord which unveiled the monument and raised the flag to the head of the stone.

The near relatives of the deceased were present during the ceremony. After the unveiling the members of the corps present, and the general public also, passed about the grave and viewed the monument. The stone is of polished grey granite of chaste design. Upon its face is the following inscription:

IN MEMORY

OF Gunner Frederick D. Harvey,
Accidentally killed
At Cedar Hall, Que.,
August 11, 1908.
While on Duty.

The badge of the Canadian Artillery surmounts the inscription, while above all is the sentence: "Erected by members of No. 1 Battery, 3rd Regt., C. A." After the ceremony the troops returned to the Drill Hall and were dismissed.

THROWS HIMSELF IN FRONT OF EXPRESS

SACO, Me., July 17.—An unknown man threw himself in front of a Portland-bound express train on the Eastern division of the Boston and Maine railroad this afternoon about 4 o'clock and was instantly killed. The man was walking along the track two miles east of the Saco station, and, according to the engineer, jumped directly in front of the locomotive as it approached him. There was nothing in his pockets except a pair of suspenders and a necktie. His clothing was of cheap quality. He was about 40 years old.

VEGGS SHOOT A MERCHANT

MONTREAL, July 18.—Another daring shooting up and burglary of a store was pulled off on Forsyth street on Saturday night about eleven o'clock.

Two men entered a little grocery kept by a Pole named Backost, and after demanding tobacco one of them pulled a revolver and shot Backost in the groin, while he also wounded Mrs. Backost in the shoulder. The two then rifled the till and got clear away. They, however, only secured two or three dollars for their trouble. Backost is seriously wounded, but his wife will recover. No description has been secured of the bandits and the chances of capturing them seems slight.

AMUSEMENTS

ANIMAL CIRCUS AT THE PRINCESS.

The big feature act at the Princess this week is Lamont's big animal circus consisting of trained monkeys, dogs and cats. This is by far the best animal act that has ever been seen in this city. The management of the Princess are under very heavy expense in such a big act to St. John. On the bill with the circus is Austin Walsh in a rip roaring comedy sketch entitled "Sitting Steady New York in the Rubber Neck Wagon." You'll have to laugh at the act whether you want to or not, so come prepared to laugh. Longfellow is next. Hat hat that's just what you are going to do the minute you lay eyes on him, for he is the tallest and funniest looking man on the stage and he keeps you in the best of humor with his funny sayings and musical oddities. The Princess own professional orchestra under the direction of Fred C. Jones will be in attendance every night, and by the way, the orchestra have some musical surprises for their friends this week. Regular programme of motion pictures. Starting today the doors of the theatre will be opened at 2.30, matinee at 2.45; evening at 7.20, performance at 7.45 and 9 o'clock. Judging from the show you will have to be early tonight to secure a good seat.

VAUDEVILLE AT H. H. H. TODAY.

Today the H. H. H. presents a great programme. The Berlin in 15 Minutes of Opera. Lovers of singing know what a treat that means. By request Miss Berini will sing "Kilary," Signor Berini will sing "Columbia" by Tosti, and the duet will be "Wooling Time." As the Berlin's engagement is rapidly nearing an end those who appreciate good singing should not miss any of their selections. A vaudeville feature which may be termed a novelty will open an engagement today. They are Brown and Hodges, a team of Indian singers, dancers and cartoonists. The H. H. H.'s New York "Brown and Hodges" are one of three or four Indian acts that are in vaudeville, and they are the first Indian vaudeville act ever seen in the Maritime Provinces. That they are good goes without saying, otherwise they would not be at the H. H. H. In pictures a splendid programme will be given. The Girl Spy, a very strong war drama founded on an actual incident of the civil war. The Sunday South, of France is a delightful scenic picture showing Monte Carlo, the famous gambling resort. The Magic Handbill is a trick comedy, making an hour and a half show. Further particulars in large ad., page two.

REAL CIRCUS AT NICKEL TODAY.

The Selig Polyscope Co. of Chicago is one of the foremost film making concerns in the world, and many of its magnificent productions shown at Nickel Theatre have elicited general praise. Today and tomorrow the latest big feature from these laboratories will be shown in The Lion Tamer, a melodrama of circus life, with incidental scenes in the savannah ring, the menagerie, the tents, etc. This is a story of unrequited love and an attempt at terrible revenge, told, however, by the bravery of a fond parent. Frantic lions and tigers, elephants, trained ponies, real circus performers and city scenes are introduced throughout the film, which the journals say is one of the best of the year. There will be three other fine new pictures.

Holmes and Buchanan will enter upon another week in a vivid additional novelties of which The Glowworm an irresistible intermezzo—will be the chief. Miss Holmes will sing a catchy thing, He Didn't Know Quite What to Do, and Mr. Buchanan has that charming love ditty, I Never Knew a Girl Like You. Tiny Pat Harrington is going to create more fun with The Glad I'm Married. The orchestra will delight everybody with novelties and standard selections.

GREAT BIOGRAPH FEATURE AT "STAR."

"The Country Doctor" is the Biograph Company's latest and sweetest film story—a breath from the hazy olden days, the grass-grown lanes and daisy beds—and deals with the saccharine life of a village physician. Those rugged and honored faces are so familiar to most everybody. The story is of intense human interest. It grows at the heart in its tender moods and is so charmingly natural that every action and unspoken word is understood. To miss this picture will be to miss the richest treat of the summer in motion-picture plays. There will be other pictures, three of them, but "The Country Doctor" is the leading feature. Miss Biard will sing a new love-song and the Star's new American trap-drummer will startle hearers with his realistic effects.
