Shortly afterwards Secre-tary Root called and went into conference with the president on the latest phases of the strike situation. Secretary Cortelyou was summoned a few minutes later. It is believed Secretary Root has received infor-mation with respect to the attitude of the operators towards some of the objections to their proposition. It was rumored that Im-migration Commissioner Sargent and Com-missioner of Labor Wright would have an-other talk with the president tonight, but up to 10.15 neither had put in an appearance at the White House. It is understood unit at that presidents, to be held in Wilkersbarre tomor-row. Commissioner Sargent has been an important factor in the efforts made by Pre-sident Roosevelt to effect a settlement of the controversy between the miners and the operators, and therefore was in a position to talk frankly with Mr. Mitchell. Their contrence was as earnest as it was long. It is believed that at its conclusion Mr. Mitchell had formulated a statement akin is a counter proposition to that made by the operators. This he later presented to the president, going directly from Mr. Sar-gent's office to the White House at 3 o'clock for that purpose. While no author-ized statement of the counter proposition could be obtained, it can be sized on excel-lent authority that Mr. Mitchell in criti-cism of the proposition of the operators, took exceptions to the disparagement of the time in which, under the proposed agree-ment, there is to be no artike. prisoners' 18 months old daughter were shot and killed. Woodin was overpowered just as he was about to turt the weapon upon himself. He visited the court house this morning about 9 o'clock, and looked over the papers in a suit for divorce which his wife insti-tuted Oct. 10. He then purchased a revolver. Having secured the weapon, he first rode his wheel to the Gulick farm, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gulick be-ing the first victims. Mr. Gulick was shot twice, once above the heart and once in the right side, and was instant-ly killed. Woodin then turned upon his mother-in-law and shot her in the

It is understood that he took a firm stand against this proposition, saying he was satisfied the miners would not submit to any arbitration which would not be arbitration in fact as well as in name. He urged that this would not be the case if one side to the controversy were afforded the advantage of naming the classes from which the arbitrators were to be ap-pointed. He expressed himself as being as anxious as ever for arbitration, but planted himself squarely on the proposition that the derer went to his mother's home, where he shot his little daughter. Farm hands rushed in in time to prevent Woodin from shooting himself. Woodin was a soldier in the Cuban war. At the jail he refused to talk except to express regret that he failed to kill himself.
