His beloved wife, "a mother in Israel," eight children, three sons and five daughters, grand children, relatives and friends mourn his loss. Our loss is his very great gain. Mr. Washborn had spent forty-five years in the gospel ministry. In a funeral discourse, Rev. C. H. McKee, acting pastor of the church, spoke in the highest terms of the Christian character of his deceased brother.

HORTON.—On May 11th after a lingering illness at his home Gladstone, Captain John W. Horton in the 82nd year of his age

E. K. Ganong who delivered an appropriate sermon.

ROBBINS.—Deacon S. Harvey Robbins at Rossway, May 21, 1904, aged 78, Deacon Robbins was baptized by the Rev. S. C. Morse when but a young man and united with the first Digby Neck Baptist church, and was appointed deacon of this church about 25 years ago. In his life he endeavored to honor his office and profession. He was kind and helpful in his life, a faithful attendant upon the means of grace, he was peaceful and happy in his death. He leaves 5 sisters and 4 brothers, 5 daughters, 2 sons, a large number of grand children and friends to mourn their loss. May the God of all graces sustain them. The large number at the funeral was a testimony to the esteem in which our brother was held in the community. The funeral was conducted by Rev. S. Langille, Text Matt 5: 8, "Blessed are the poor in heart."

SEELYE.—At Turle Creek, Albert Co., N. B. on the 16th of May, Minnie M. beloved wife of Rev. F. B. Seelye past into rest in the 34th year of her age. About two years since our sister's lungs were affected by congestion and pneumonia which left her in such a condition that she was pronounced beyond cure by the physicians. A surgical operation in the fall failed to improve her condition. Her sufferings increased and grew more and more intense until the last few moments when she fell asleep peacefully in Jesus. Our sister accepted Christ eleven years ago in a revival conducted by Rev. E. M. Saunders and pastor Maider at St. George who baptized her that spring. Her faith was a great source of strength and comfort to her, and she would repeatedly exclaim:—"I could not stand the pain if it were not for Jesus." In her death our sister leaves her foster parents, her husband, three little children and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. We rejoice that, "They sorrow not as others, without hope."

BRUCE.—At Brooklyn, N. S., on May 2nd John I. Bruce eldest son of John Bruce aged 39 years. He leaves a widow and a family of four children to mourn the loss of a devoted and loving husband and father. Father, mother and two brothers and three sisters survive him. They feel the bereavement peculiarly sad as this is the first break in the family circle. The departed brother was a patient sufferer for more than two years, and was always of a cheerful spirit. Like too many young men he lived his life in forgetfulness of the Lord who loved him and who gave himself to redeem him, but during his illness as he lay and thought of his life and its relation to eternity, he very sincerely repented of his sins, he humbly yielded his heart to Christ, and found peace of soul. For many weeks after his conversion he had hopes of getting well, and talked often of the service he wanted to render to his Lord. He spoke frequently of his brothers and his friends of their need to Christ, when he came near the end he spoke of "going home" and asked those who were near him at the last, to meet him in Heaven. His end was very peaceful.

McLEOD.—Sweetly fell asleep in Jesus at her home at Dundas, P. E. I., on the 23rd of April, 1904, Christy McDonald relict of the late Angus McLeod in the 74 year of her age. She leaves to mourn one sister Mrs. George Plover, Victoria Cross, P. E. I., and one brother, Rev. D. G. McDonald, D. D., Manitoba, also a family of one son and four daughters, viz. Rev. A. A. McLeod, Baptist missionary to India; Mrs. Geo. A. Robertson, with whom she lived; Mrs. Wm. H. Riley, Upton, Mrs. Daniel McDougall and Mrs. Fred Allen both of Vancouver, B. C. She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Dundas, where her generosity and liberality will be greatly missed, and the writer can truthfully say that the world is better because she lived in it. She was a great lover of truth, a true and kind hearted whole-souled Christian. She will be greatly missed in the family circle where she was dearly loved and respected, and especially so by her grandchild, Miss Effie May, only surviving child of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Robertson, whose tender solicitations for her grandmother's comfort and happiness could not be excelled and must have its reward. She will also be missed in the community for her kindness and wise council especially to the young with whom she was a great favorite, and by whom she was generally known as grandma.

HEALTH FOR GIRLS.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make Strong Healthy Rosy-Cheeked Lassies.

"I was attacked with appendicitis," says Miss Fabiola Grammont, daughter of Mr. Charles Grammont, a prosperous farmer of Champlain, Que., "and while the doctor who attended me cured me of this trouble, it left behind after effects from which it seemed almost impossible to recover. I grew weak and very pale; my appetite was poor; I suffered at times from severe headaches; and the least exertion left me completely worn out. I tried several remedies, but instead of getting better I was gradually growing worse. Any work about the house left me weak and dispirited, and I felt almost like giving up. At this time a friend who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with much benefit, strongly urged me to give them a trial. I got a box, and as I did not feel any better when I had used them, I would have given them up but for the fact that my friend urged that one box was not a fair trial. I then decided to continue the use of the pills, and by the time I had taken three boxes I found my condition was improving. I used eight boxes in all, and by the time I had taken them all my old time health had returned. My appetite had improved, I had gained in weight and the glow of health had returned to my face. I cannot too strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all pale and weak girls."

Good blood is an absolute necessity, and the only way to have a constant supply of rich, red health-giving blood is to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose helps to make new blood, and to drive from the system such troubles as anaemia, languidness, neuralgia, dyspepsia, rheumatism, etc. You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

QUARTERLY MEETING AND ORDINATION.

The regular Quarterly Meeting of the Cape-Breton Baptist churches convened with the Gabarus Baptist church on May 17th and 18th. Pastors Schurman, Vincent, Steves Beattie, Whitman and McCabe were present. On Tuesday evening Pastor Schurman of North Sydney preached a stirring Evangelistic sermon from Isa. 55th. On Wednesday morning after a season of prayer and praise, matters of business especially relating to the churches at Louisburg and Grand Mira and the raising of funds for Denominational work were considered.

The principal business transacted was the examination and ordination of Bro. A. H. McCabe, who has been for nearly a year pastor of the Gabarus and Fourchic churches. The clerk read the minutes relative to the call of the home-I for his ordination. Rev. F. Beattie of Homeville was appointed Moderator and A. H. Whitman, of Sydney Mines, Clerk.

The following delegates were enrolled, From North Sydney, Pastor G. W. Schurman.

At the conclusion of the examination the candidate retired when the following resolution was unanimously passed. Resolved, that having listened with satisfaction to Bro. McCabe's statement of his call to the ministry, Christian experience, and views of Christian doctrine, we as a council recommend the church to proceed with the ordination. In the service which followed, the following programme was carried out.

Ordination Prayer by Moderator, Rev. F. Beattie; Charge to candidate and right hand of fellowship, Rev. A. H. Whitman; Charge to the church, Rev. A. J. Vincent; Benediction, Rev. A. H. McCabe.

It was necessary to omit the customary ordination sermon in order for the delegates to connect with the boat and the train.

In glancing through the annual report of the American Baptist Publication Society we find some statistics about the Baptist periodicals that will be of interest to our readers. The very large circulation that the periodicals have attained is proof positive of their excellence. During the past year the total average issue of all the periodicals was 2,030,372 copies, the aggregate of circulation was 46,767,645 copies, being an increase of 661,711 copies over the year preceding. The average circulation of The Advanced Quarterly alone is 442,500 copies; that of the Primary Quarterly is 251,250 copies. Young People has a circulation of 111,288 copies, while Boys and Girls is closely following with 110,406 subscribers, and Our Little Ones pleases our 164,500 children.

Competition in Sunday school literature is so keen now that this constant growth of the Baptist periodicals is the more convincing and gratifying.
