IN MUSICAL CIRCLES.

of the most unique and really detril outertainments offered in this city long time, was the song recital at the ms house on Thursday and Friday nings of last week. Two ladies viz e. Ohrstrom Renard and Miss Mao-uis furnished the programme which sisted of piane seles, soprano seles and ano dustis. Every vocal number ioularly was a pleasure. Mms. Renard g several, Swedish songs and there a Swedish dust as well. Sacred and day pieces ware among the number ecular pieces were among the numbers also. The scoompaniments were all play-ed by Mme. Repard and special mention is due to this lady's playing of the accompani-ment to "The Maid O' Dundee" which was sung by Miss MacKenzie in an admirmer. The duett from Norma was a brilliant performance and every duett was so well done that the character of the work was happily illustrated by the remark of a musical gentleman who heard them when he said "You would think it was one lady with two voices." Such really meritorious performers deserved more liberal

In the three sgainst one incident, con nected with the quartette of St. Andrews' church choir referred to last week, the only development I have heard since the previou on is, that the three, have tendered their resignations. Now as the one in the case was I believe originally secured by the three, and on the suggestion or reco dation of the three, accepted by the com-mittee, it might surprise the three not a little if their proffered resignatious should be accepted. There may be more of this yet, and there may be more in it than apars on the surface.

This department is indebted to the thoughtful courtesy of Mr. John H. Williams, representing thei Worcester Daily Spy for an official circular of the approach-ing Worchester musical festival. ## TALK OF THE THEATER.

The Miles Ideal Stock Company opene d their return engagement at the Opera house on the afternoon of Labor day and to an audience that literally crowded the house, and in numbers exceeded the best previous record at the Opera house. The previous record at the Opera noise. The same crowded condition of the house characterized the evening performance when "Michael Strogoff" was the bill. This play had been dealth with when previously given by this company here, so that particular notice of the production is not ow necessary. Suffice it to say that though there are some weak spots in the performance it was abundantly satisfying as performance it was southunnity sharing to a whole. The weak spots are the conse-quence of some changes that have been ma de in the cast since previously given here and which bave been neces ted by changes in membership. The specialties are all up to their previous standard of merit, and the business has continued good throughout the week. The engagement will close with the matinee this after. noon and a performance to-night.

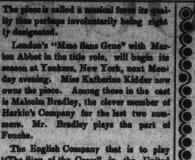

Much regret is felt at the fact of Mr. Frank Lee Miles' illness which seized that gentleman on Wednesday morning last. Mr. Miles was happily convalescing from the injuries he received on the stage in Halifax a few weeks aince and which obliged him to go to the hespital for treas-ment. This receives tathed in the mark ment. This recent attack is the more evere on that account.

On Monday evening next the opera house will be occupied by the famous actor James[O'Neill whose name has been especially connected with the play "Monte Cristo." Mr. O, Neill's stay is limited to tour nights, and his opening play will be "Virginia's." A different play is announced for each night and among them I notice "The Dead Heaat" which is one of the latest additions to Mr. O'Neill's repertoire. Twelve performances of "Trilby" at the Castle Square theatre, Boston, last week were witnessed by 20,000 persons.

"Fort Frayne" is the title of a dramatiz ation of Captain King's novel which was recently presented at the Schiller Theatre Chicago, and for the first time on any stage. It is credited with a success. The dramatization is the joint work of the autho and Mrs. Emma Sheridon Fry and Mrs. Sutherland.

Edith Hardy, is the name of a Cam bridge society girl who is to take the part played by Laura Joyce Bellin "The Walking Delegate" when that play is produced in Lynn Mass. on the 15th inst. Miss Hardy has for several seasons been a pop-ular member of the Criterion Dramatic club.

ONE OF EXPOSURE TO INCLEMENT AND CHANGEABLE WEATHER.

tism One of the Natural Results—One Who Buffered for Upwards of Nine Xears Gives His Experience. From the Intelligencer, Belleville, Ont. It is doubtful if there is any other occ-upation more trying to the constitution than that of the threaher. Exposed to the rains and the storms of the autumn season, and at the same time choked with the dust onsequent upon threahing, he easily falls a prey to disease. Mr. Jos. H. Davis, a resident of the township of Wicklow, Hast-ings county, follows the threahing machine for some months every fall. For eight or nine years he was subject to attacks of in flaumatory rheumatism. The disease us-ually made its appearance in the fall, and continued throughout the winter, causing not only much suffering but great incon-venience. Mr. Davis' most serions attack occurred during the winter of 1893. It first made itself manifest by the swelling of the right hand, and before twenty-four hours had passed the disease appeared to have gone through the whole system, and the legs were swellen to an abnormal size, so much so that the joints were not visible through the swellings. For ten months the trouble continued and during that period Mr. Davis was unable to put on his own notothes, and the pain he endured almost pasted comprehension. One doctor after another was tried but without any benefic-ial results. Then advertised medicines were tried but with no better success, fl can hardly say,' said Mr. Davis, 'how much money I spent on doctors and used-icine, but if amounted to a consider-able sum, and yet I would most will-ingly have given my farm to be sid of the terrible pain I was forced to endure. But all my expenditures seemed of no avail, and I began to despair of a cure. At this juncture, asting on the ad-vice of a triend, I began aning Dr. Will-iam's Pink Pills. The first aix boxes I used seemed from outward appearances to have add on effect, and I fielt almost like giving up in despair. I thought, however, that possibly that was not a tair trial tor one is my oution and I pr

for I have not known what it to suffer with rheumatism since. It will thus be seen that Dr. William's Pink Pills released Mr. Davis from the painful thraldom of rheumatism at a com-paratively small exponse after doctors and others medicines had utterly failed to give him even a fair measure of relief. It is obvious therefore that if Dr. William's Pink Pills are given a fair trial they are sure to bring relief and cure. Every box of genuine Pink Pills has the trade mark on the wrapper around the box, and the purchaser can protect himself from impos-tion by retuning all others. Sold by all dealers at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.
