"BUSINESS AS USUAL" SLOGAN NOT APPLICABLE TO DIVORCE COURT

Only one new case scheduled for the next session which opens Feb. 23.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, Jan. 30.—The scene of fighting, martial as well as international, seems to be centered pretty well in the other hemisphere, for New Brunswick Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes will have but one new case to come before Mr. Justice McKinnon when next session opens on 23rd of February.

The slogan "business as usual" does not hold good for the divorce court, for every session were all the way from half a dozen to a dozen new cases for every session of the court before the European war broke out and overshadowed all domestic scrapes New Brunswick ever had.

The cases of Bugless vs. Bugless and Wheaton vs. Wheaton in which commissions were issued that evidence might be taken in the United States, are the only other cases awaiting trial, while judgment is to be delivered in Perry vs. Perry, a St. John case.

In a case which has been filed, Mrs. Mary E. Kearney of Andover is bringing suit for an absolute divorce from her husband, Ernest H. Kearney, with whom she lived at the parish of Kent, Carleton county, from time of their marriage in October, 1912, until September, 1913, when she alleged that brutal treatment made it necessary for her to leave and return to her father's home in Andover. She was formerly Miss Mary E. McQuarrie, and they were married by Rev. A. G. Gibson, a Primitive Baptist minister in Kent.

Mrs. Kearney also charges her husband with the usual statutory offenses upon which to base an action for divorce as well as claiming that her husband had a "loud and vicious temper" and names Caroline Broad as co-respondent.

Announcement is made that the provincial government will meet here next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Lieut. Gov. Wood will return direct to Fredericton after attending the opening of Parliament at Ottawa on Thursday.

Now I can go the field and work like any other man. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are an excellent medicine."
