CELEBRATED MURDER RECALLED
BY RE-UNION OF GIRL STOLEN IN CHILDHOOD, WITH SISTEREdna May McGrath, of Moncton, Taken From Boston Home by Annie Parker, Noted Figure in Trial of Hotel Men for Murder of Timothy McCarthy at Shediac.The presence in St. John this week of a young woman of Lynn, Mass., recalls one of the most sensational and baffling murder cases which ever occurred in the United Provinces and also has to do with the sequel of a theft of a child seventeen years ago by a woman, the most important witness in the homicide trial.The young woman of Lynn is Caroline McGrath, who went to Moncton to take back to Massachusetts her sister, Edna May McGrath, who for fifteen years was known in the railroad city as Edna May Horsman. Edna was taken from the cradle at her home in Boston by the late Mrs. Horsman, who was no other than the celebrated Annie Parker of McCarthy murder fame.The Police Assisted.
In November, 1916, Miss Caroline McGrath, in some way heard that she had a sister in Moncton and communicated with the police of Lynn and asked their advice. The Lynn police manifested much interest in the case and wrote to the police of Moncton. The officers of the latter city investigated and found that there was a girl who had been living with Mrs. Horsman.
Mrs. Horsman had died several weeks before the investigation was taken up, but the girl was able to throw some light on the case. She recollected that her supposed mother, Mrs. Horsman, had told her on several occasions that there was a secret connected with her life which she would one day impart to her. Death, however, came so rapidly that she did not learn then what the secret was.Further investigation established the fact that in the year 1900 Annie Parker was employed as a nurse or mid-wife, by a gentleman named Mc-Grath in Boston. Three or four months after the birth of a girl baby both baby and nurse disappeared mysteriously. Further investigation in the distracted minds of the McGraths from instituting a complete search at the time.Sister Located Lost One.
Fifteen years later when the older sister, Caroline, grew old enough to realize that the matter she she instituted the enquiries mentioned above, which terminated in the discovery and location of her long lost sister.Since that time they have been corresponding steadily, but circumstances prevented the re-union of the mem-bers of the severed family until this week. Miss McGrath arrived in the province this week and went to Moncton. The re-union naturally was a joyous one. The sisters are returning to Massachusetts where they will reside.A Famous Case.
The murder case with which Annie Parker was connected occurred at Shediac, October 12, 1877, and is recalled by the writer, who lived there at the time. In the quiet hours of the night, Timothy McCarthy of Moncton was slain in the Osborne Hotel, which was located near the railroad station in that town, and which has since been burned. McCarthy had a large sum of money and a gold watch on his person.
He stopped off at Shediac on his way to Prince Edward Island. He never left the hotel alive and the whereabouts of his body was a mystery which attracted attention all over Canada, and even in the United States.Many rumors and reports, some false and some true, were circulated, and conflicting accounts of what purported to be the circumstances of the killing of McCarthy were told by Annie Parker, who was employed in domestic service by the Osborne family.
Osborne himself, the landlord of the hotel, Mrs. Osborne and their son, Harry, were arrested, charged with murder or with being accessories before and after the fact.The Parker woman was arrested as a witness and detained for some time in the jail at Dorchester with the other prisoners. Accused were held for trial. The motive alleged was robbery.The following spring when the ice broke up in the Gradoux river, less than a mile from the scene of the crime, the public was again stirred by the discovery of McCarthy's body in the water by a mill hand. The money and watch of the dead man were found on the body.At the trial of the Osbornes, Annie Parker testified that McCarthy was struck down with a hatchet and that his body was afterwards placed in an express wagon and carted to the river bank, through a field and thrown into the river. The evidence of the Parker woman, however, although confirmed in part, was contradictory in many respects and her reliability as a witness was questioned by the attorneys for the defense. The government failed to convict the defendants.Carmarthen street, yesterday morning. Mrs. Minnehan is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Williamson, Mrs.
Theodore and Miss B. Minnehan, take place this afternoon from her late residence.Percy Pickard Gunn.

The death occurred on Tuesday at his home in Sussex, of Percy Pickard Gunn, only son of the late John G.
Gunn, of Fredericton, in the 37th year of his age. For several years he represented Messrs. J. and A. McMillan of this city, and afterwards travelled for McFarlane Son and Hodgson of Montreal. Later he was identified with the business of Gunn Paper Co., in which he was engaged until a few months ago when ill health compelled his retirement. As a salesman he was popular with the public and his associates. He was a member of the Methodist church, a Conservative in politics and a member of the Masonic Order of Sussex. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon from his residence, School street at 2 o'clock.Mrs. Leonard Mason.

larly sad circumstances, leaving as reported progress. Miss Marion Ham-Girl Guides, telling of the various classes for physical drill, sewing, knit-held during the summer and a mother and daughter banquet in the winter.

The Boy Scouts reported through Scout Percy Hoyt. The troop has been in existence three years and has grown from a membership of six to thirty-three. The report stated that "Already the boys are doing their bit" helping the returned wounded

One of the most striking window displays seen at St. John in a very long time is in M.R.A.'s Ltd., King street front. It is peculiarly appropriate at the present time in that it presents in a striking manner not only the advantages but the attractiveness of greater production. The window consists of a garden scene wherein a young lady appropriately dressed and carrying a hoe is seen devoting the necessary attention to beds of celery, lettuce and tomatoes. This window was arranged by Mr. Lynch, advertising manager of M.R.A., and is as unique
