If there is any person more unhappy than the dyspeptic it would be hard to find him. Dyspeptic people are generally tortured by a constant desire for things they know they must not eat. Dyspepsia is a very common disease; most people, particularly those who do not take enough exercise, are inclined to it more or less frequently. The dyspeptic generally has recourse to various medicines which only offer temporary relief from the distress, but do not effect a cure. What the dyspeptic needs is

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills FOR PALE PEOPLE.

These pills are not a purgative but are tonic and stren thening. They act upon the stomach, nerves and blood, and are particularly good for dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. They give relief, but they do more than that. They remove the cause of the trouble and by trengthening the organs they effect a permanent cure.

Pisqui P.E.I., is a c who suffered for years, and relates his fit of sin flar sufferers. Mr Birt says :--" For many years I was accompanied by nervousness, palpitation of the heart and other My an etite was irregular, and what I ate felt like a weight in accompanied by a foling of stupor or sleepiness, and yet I rarely alseen. I continued taking the pills for several months, with the result that my health was as good and my digestion better than it had ever been. One of the most flattering results of the treatment was my increase in weight from 125 pounds to 155 pounds. It is more than a year now siace I discontinued the use of the pills and in that time I have not had the slightest return of the trou-ble. Dr. Williams's Pink Pills make new, rich blood with every dose, and in this way they cure all diseases having their origin in poor or watery blood, such as dyspepsia, kidney and liver troubles, stomach ailments, rheumatism, sciatica, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance and anæmia. They restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks and give renewed health to women whose lives are made miserable by the ailments that afflict their sex.

Refuse all so-called tonic pills that do not have the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on every box. If you do not find them at your dealers they will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"My conshuns alive!" turning to Big Bill, was almost a giant; Litt'e Bill was almost a dwarf. They first met at a card table-or, "the child is gittin" pearter an' pearter. Wall, shet up yore contrapshun, an' le's go. rather, at a card cotton bale on the Missis sippi river-and, as they expressed it, hankered at once for each other's society. They became so much attached to each other that they soon decided to settle down together, and, building a cabin in Chicot County, Arkansas, they began the business of "general merchants and dealers in plantation sup plies. The very oddity of the firm was a valuable advertisement, and, it is well known that negroes rode jat least 10 miles, Saturday afternoons, to doal with the "long and short o' it." The sign-which read as follows: "Big Bill & Little Bill"-conveyed the only intelligence that the community had ever received with regard to their names, but, as people who live in the Mississippi river bottoms are not curious with regard to the affairs of other men, no one showed those symptoms of uneasy concern calling that many of the neighbors came and which make life in a hillside village the fit looked in upon them. Many attentions abode of Belzebub.

Of course, someone would occasionally ask a question something like this: "Say, did you fellers lose your other names durin' the overflow?" But the nearest to a satisfactory reply that was ever rendered was the following fanswer, sometimes delivered lookin' all the time " by the giant and sometimes by the dwarf:
