

JUNE WEDDINGS

Bathurst.

Bathurst, June 6.—A pretty marriage of general interest took place at 11 o'clock on Monday morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart, when Miss Jennie Howard, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Howard, became the bride of Francis Elhston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Elhston. The bride, who is one of the most charming and popular of Bathurst's girls, looked very winsome in a becoming traveling dress of navy blue with hat of blue and ochraceous. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hamm will reside at 800 Main street.

Moncton.

Moncton, June 6.—A wedding of unusual interest took place in St. George's cathedral at 11 o'clock in the morning. The bride was Marjorie Young Smith, daughter of Donald Hearn Cowl, of Great Neck, Long Island (N. Y.). Bishop Richardson officiated, assisted by Canon Siam, rector of St. George's. The church was prettily decorated. The bride was wearing a dress of blue and white with a large collar and a long train. The groom was wearing a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Whelan in the presence of a number of friends of both parties. Numerous good wishes will be extended to the happy young couple who are both very popular. They left on the Limited for a trip to P. E. Island, and will on their return reside in Bathurst.

Chatham.

Chatham, June 6.—At 7.45 a. m. in St. Michael's Cathedral, Miss J. Agnes Harrington, daughter of Mr. J. Agnes Harrington, and Howard McKendry, manager of the J. D. Creighton Company store, were married and nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. M. A. O'Keefe, cousin of the bride. After the breakfast at the bride's home the happy couple left for Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian cities. The bride is the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. From the J. D. Creighton Company she received a check, and individual remembrances came from all members of the staffs at Newcastle and Chatham.

Thompson-Ross.

Thompson-Ross, Tuesday June 6.—A pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning in the Methodist church, when the pastor, Rev. W. G. Lane, united in marriage Charles William Thompson, of H. M. Customs, and Miss Margaret J. Ross, daughter of the late William and Agnes Ross of this city. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left on the Boston boat for a short trip and on their return will reside in the city.

Maxwell-Clark.

Maxwell-Clark, Tuesday June 6.—A military wedding of considerable interest was solemnized yesterday afternoon in St. John's church, when the pastor, Rev. G. F. Scoville, when he united in marriage John D. Maxwell, of the 140th Battalion, C. E. F., and Sarah M. Clark, daughter of James M. Clark, of West St. John. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Wright, of Norton (N. B.), and the groom by A. F. Baker, also of the 140th Battalion, and a native of Carleton county (N. B.). A large number were present to witness the ceremony, and the bride was the recipient of many useful wedding gifts.

McGinnis-Galbraith.

McGinnis-Galbraith, Tuesday June 6.—Yesterday morning at 9 o'clock Allan C. McGinnis, of Judique, Inverness Co., Cape Breton, and Miss Mary Anna Galbraith, daughter of John Galbraith, Lorneville, were married at the cathedral with nuptial mass by the rector, Rev. Wm. M. Duke. The bride, who presented a very pleasing appearance, was garbed in a gown of blue silk, plain with hat to match and carried a large bouquet of white roses. Miss Mary Edith Semple, a first cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom was wearing a tuxedo and carried a large bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to St. Sewall street, where breakfast was served. The groom is a popular member of the city police force and a number of the city officers attended the wedding. The bride was the recipient of a number of beautiful presents and a substantial cheque from the groom. The happy couple for the present will reside at 73 Sewall street.

Blizard-McGrath.

Blizard-McGrath, June 6.—Pte. Arnold F. Blizard, whose sight and hearing were affected when he was gassed by the Germans while acting as stretcher bearer with the army medical corps of the 1st Canadian contingent, enlisted for life on Saturday afternoon in a new army. He has joined the ranks of the beneficiaries, having been married to Miss Gertrude United Baptist church parsonage to Miss Mary McGrath, a waitress at Barker House. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. F. Ross, who is the best man was another of the returned heroes. The bride's home is at Tracadie and her sister was recently married to Pte. James King, who was wounded in the battle while fighting with the 10th Battalion in the First Canadian Contingent and was invalided home.

Brennan-Murdoch.

Brennan-Murdoch, Wednesday June 7.—Miss Elsie Murdoch, daughter of William Murdoch, and Herbert Brennan were married at St. Andrew's church at 11.45 yesterday morning by Rev. F. S. Dowling. The bride was given away by her father, and was becomingly gowned in a grey silk tulle traveling dress, and carried a large bunch of Killarney roses. The happy pair motored to Hampton, and after their honeymoon will reside at Queen street.

Silliphant-Marshall.

Silliphant-Marshall, Thursday June 8.—In the Mission church, Paradise Row, a pretty wedding was solemnized yesterday morning when the pastor, Rev. John V. Young, united in marriage Miss Jennie Marshall and Samuel Silliphant, a popular employe of the C. P. R. at West St. John. They were unattended. The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a white broadcloth suit with black hat and carrying a shower bouquet of sweet peas. Following the ceremony a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, following which Mr. and Mrs. Silliphant left on the Boston boat on a two weeks' trip.

Hamm-Williams.

Hamm-Williams, The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams, 107 Germain street, was the scene of an interesting event at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the daughter, Miss Mabel Louise, was united in marriage to the George Parker Hamm, of this city. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms, roses and other cut flowers, the decorations being carried out by K. Pedersen. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Hammond Johnson, pastor of the Queen square Methodist church. The bride looked very charming in a handsome wedding dress of white satin trimmed with green lace, with a large white and orange blossoms and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

superior of the Sacred Heart convent, Providence (R. I.). The funeral takes place tomorrow with interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Father Grace.

Doherty-Heenan.

Doherty-Heenan, Frederickton, June 7.—William Doherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Doherty, of Norton, was united in marriage with Miss Cecelia Heenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heenan, of Fredericton Junction, at that place at 9 o'clock this morning. The ceremony was followed by the mass. Rev. Father Murphy preached an instructive sermon on the great dignity of the married state. The witnesses were: J. F. Doherty, brother of the groom; Miss J. C. Heenan, sister of the bride.

McKendry-Harrington.

McKendry-Harrington, Chatham, N. B., June 6.—A wedding of much and to Miramichi and other provincial centres took place quietly this morning at 7.45 o'clock in St. Michael's cathedral, the principals being Miss J. Agnes Harrington, daughter of Mr. J. Agnes Harrington of this town, and Howard McKendry, manager of the J. D. Creighton Company store in this town, and secretary of the company. The contracting parties were unattended and nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. M. A. O'Keefe, the cousin of the bride. After the wedding breakfast at the bride's home, Mr. and Mrs. McKendry left on a wedding trip for Montreal, Toronto and other Canadian cities. They have had a very happy honeymoon and will return to Chatham on their wedding trip. The bride is the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts from all members of the staffs at Newcastle and Chatham. Other gifts were in checks and gold and silver. On their return Mr. and Mrs. McKendry will reside in Chatham at the cottage the West End.

Cowl-Smith.

Cowl-Smith, Moncton, June 1.—A wedding of unusual interest took place in St. George's cathedral at 11 o'clock in the morning. The bride was Marjorie Young Smith, daughter of Donald Hearn Cowl, of Great Neck, Long Island (N. Y.). Bishop Richardson officiated, assisted by Canon Siam, rector of St. George's. The church was prettily decorated. The bride was wearing a dress of blue and white with a large collar and a long train. The groom was wearing a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Whelan in the presence of a number of friends of both parties. Numerous good wishes will be extended to the happy young couple who are both very popular. They left on the Limited for a trip to P. E. Island, and will on their return reside in Bathurst.

Keith-McKinney.

Keith-McKinney, At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Keith, at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson united in marriage Miss Bina Adeline Keith to Walter Andrew McKinney. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. The bride, becomingly attired in white silk with shadow lace overalls. Little Miss Catherine Keast, niece of the groom, acted as flower girl and was dressed in white silk. The bride received many valuable and useful gifts, including a purse of gold from the groom's mother, also a substantial cheque from the groom. The happy couple for the present will reside in Victoria street.

Clark-Williamson.

Clark-Williamson, Thursday June 8.—A very pretty wedding took place last evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hargrove, 818 King street, St. John West, when his daughter, Nellie F. Williamson, was united in marriage to William Harvey Clark of West St. John. Rev. Mr. Jenner of Charlotte street Baptist church officiated. The bride, becomingly attired in shadow lace over blue silk with pearl trimmings and wore a bridal veil with train of rose buds and carried a shower bouquet. The groom was wearing a tuxedo and carried a large bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was given away by her step-father. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The guests included only the bride and groom. The young people received many beautiful and costly presents. They have many friends who will be present in wishing them happiness in the future. They will reside in Winlaw street.

Thomas-Martin.

Thomas-Martin, Thursday June 8.—At the Central Baptist church, parsonage last evening by the Rev. Dr. J. McPherson, Private John H. Thomas of the 16th Battalion was united in marriage to Miss Blanche Martin, daughter of Captain and Mrs. T. C. Martin, of Hopewell Cape (N. B.). The bride was attired in a navy blue traveling suit with hat to match. The groom was wearing a tuxedo and carried a large bouquet of white roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. F. Ross, who is the best man was another of the returned heroes. The bride's home is at Tracadie and her sister was recently married to Pte. James King, who was wounded in the battle while fighting with the 10th Battalion in the First Canadian Contingent and was invalided home.

Forrester-Midlett.

Forrester-Midlett, Thursday June 8.—A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Thomas Mullett, Haymarket square, last night, when his daughter Elizabeth Agnes, was united in marriage to William E. Forrester, son of John Forrester, of this city. The bride was becomingly gowned in white voile with a large bouquet of white roses and carried a shower bouquet of white lilies of the valley and white roses. She entered the parlor on the arm of her father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Patrick Dennison, pastor of the Tabernacle church. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends of the bride, who has been a valued member of the Tabernacle Baptist church choir and also a member of the Therois E. O. G. T. Lodge, and was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts. After luncheon had been served the happy pair motored to their summer home at Red Head followed by the good wishes of a host of friends.

Hodgson-McClure.

Hodgson-McClure, Frederickton, June 7.—At the parish church, by Rev. Canon Cook, yesterday.

Digby.

Digby, June 5.—Betty Hatheway Marshall, second daughter of H. H. Marshall, M. P., died at the home of her parents, Queen street, last night, aged fourteen years, having been ill since August. She was a bright young girl and a general favorite with all who knew her. Her death was a great loss to the three sisters having the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

George Ferguson.

George Ferguson, Newcastle, June 5.—The death of George Ferguson took place at his home at 305 Michigan avenue, Moncton, New Brunswick, on Friday, June 3, at 8.30 a. m. Mr. Ferguson had been troubled with rheumatism for the past fourteen years, and for five years had been unable to work. He was born in South York, Ontario, Canada, on March 20, 1871. He was married to Miss Mary Yve, of Wilson's Point (N. B.), also Yve.

Gordon Leslie Hamilton.

Gordon Leslie Hamilton, only son of William W. and Rebecca Hamilton, died on May 22, at the home of his parents, Hampton, of tubercular spinal meningitis, at the age of twenty-seven years. The funeral took place at 8.30 p. m. on May 28, interment being made in the Central North church yard. Service was conducted by Rev. David Patterson. The burial service was held at the grave, most impressively conducted at the grave by members of Onward Lodge, No. 78, of which the young man was an esteemed member.

Mrs. J. L. Peters.

Mrs. J. L. Peters, Digby, June 5.—Mrs. Alice B. wife of J. L. Peters, one of Digby's most prominent citizens, died at her residence, Montague Row, yesterday afternoon, at an illness extending over fourteen years, but which took a serious turn a year ago. Mrs. Peters was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Haverworth, of Digby. Out of a large family she is survived by only one brother, J. Claire Haverworth, of Milton (N. B.), and two sisters, Mrs. S. Z. Dixon, of St. John, who was with her sister when she passed away, and Mrs. Levi Rice, of North Dakota. Mr. and Mrs. Peters have no family. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church. She was highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances and was noted for her quiet, affectionate and charitable disposition. Although not enjoying good health for so many years, she will nevertheless be greatly missed in social circles for she was a great entertainer in her own home. The funeral services were held at the home of the deceased at 2.30 with interment in the family lot in Forest Hill cemetery. The service was held in the Digby Baptist church and will be conducted by Rev. C. W. Robbins and at the grave by Rev. Wm. Duffield.

Eleanor L. Conwell.

Eleanor L. Conwell, Digby, June 5.—Miss Eleanor Loretta Conwell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Simon Conwell, died at her home, Montague Row, Saturday morning, after a very short illness, aged 46 years. She was a prominent member of St. Patrick's R. C. church and took a deep interest in all religious work. She is survived by her brother, Frank G. P. R. freight agent on the Digby wharf, and two sisters, Rev. Mary Conwell, mother superior of the Sacred Heart Convent, Halifax, and Rev. Susan Conwell, mother superior of the Sacred Heart Convent, Providence (R. I.).

superior of the Sacred Heart Convent, Providence (R. I.). The funeral takes place tomorrow with interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Father Grace.

Betty H. Marshall.

Betty H. Marshall, Digby, June 5.—Betty Hatheway Marshall, second daughter of H. H. Marshall, M. P., died at the home of her parents, Queen street, last night, aged fourteen years, having been ill since August. She was a bright young girl and a general favorite with all who knew her. Her death was a great loss to the three sisters having the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Geo. R. Boutiller.

Geo. R. Boutiller, Wednesday June 7.—George R. Boutiller, of 222 Waterloo street, passed away at an early hour yesterday morning from the result of blood poisoning, which was cut from a piece of glass. He was in the thirty-sixth year of his age and was employed with Murray & Gregory as foreman in the glass department. Besides his wife and one child, he is survived by one brother, William, and one sister, Mrs. John O'Brien, both of Halifax.

J. C. Boyd.

J. C. Boyd, The death of J. C. Boyd occurred at River Glade on June 2. He was seventy-seven years of age and leaves his wife, who was formerly Miss Martha Brown, sister of Mayor Brown of Sunbury Brae. He also leaves three daughters, two sons and a step-son. The daughters are Mrs. J. C. Boyd, Mrs. J. C. Boyd, and Mrs. J. C. Boyd. The sons are Mr. J. C. Boyd, Mr. J. C. Boyd, and Mr. J. C. Boyd. The step-son is Mr. J. C. Boyd. The funeral was held at the home of the deceased on June 4, at 10 o'clock a. m. The services were conducted by Rev. C. J. Morrissey, pastor of the Digby Baptist church.

Louis W. Parker.

Louis W. Parker, Word of the death of Louis W. Parker, of Dorchester, was received yesterday. He died on Tuesday night. His body will be brought to this city on the Boston train today for burial, which will take place at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. He is survived by his wife and by two sisters—Mrs. M. A. Vall, Mrs. Harry Dow and Miss Annie, all of Boston, and one brother, Charles, of this city.

Clark-Williams.

Clark-Williams, Thursday June 8.—Rev. J. H. Jenner, of Charlotte street Baptist church, officiated at the marriage of William Harvey Clark, of Moncton, and Miss Nellie F. Williamson, of West St. John. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hargrove, 818 King street, West St. John. The bride was wearing a dress of blue and white with a large collar and a long train. The groom was wearing a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Whelan in the presence of a number of friends of both parties. Numerous good wishes will be extended to the happy young couple who are both very popular. They left on the Limited for a trip to P. E. Island, and will on their return reside in Bathurst.

Dennis O'Brien.

Dennis O'Brien, Tuesday June 6.—The death of Dennis O'Brien took place in the Mater Misericordiae Home Sunday, in the eighty-third year of his age. He was a native of Ireland and had been a resident in Moncton for many years. He is survived by his wife and by two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Vall, Mrs. Harry Dow and Miss Annie, all of Boston, and one brother, Charles, of this city.

Mrs. John G. Stevens.

Mrs. John G. Stevens, Hopewell Hill, June 7.—The death occurred on Monday of this week, of Mrs. John G. Stevens of this place. Mrs. Stevens, who was a highly respected citizen, died at her home at 205 Main street, Hopewell Hill, on Monday, June 6, at 10 o'clock a. m. She was born in the town of Hopewell Hill, New Brunswick, on March 20, 1848. She was married to John G. Stevens, on June 10, 1868. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. G. Stevens, of this city, who is present on a voyage from a foreign port to Philadelphia, and William H. Stevens, of California. He also leaves one son-in-law and five grandchildren.

Arthur S. Schurman.

Arthur S. Schurman, of Amherst, is the guest of his brother, Rev. S. W. Schurman, of this city. He is attending the monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Board of Trade which is held in the town hall. Several important questions were under consideration, the most important being the question of the Mill street drain, which has for some time caused considerable annoyance to the citizens in that locality. A favorable report was given by the board of health, was presented. Information was received to the effect that the government would defray one-half the expense necessary for improvement, and the citizens of the town will be called upon for their part. The next meeting will be held in July.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and Miss Jean Miller.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and Miss Jean Miller left on Monday for a two months' visit in Winnipeg. While there they will attend the annual assembly of the Presbyterian church and visit Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. J. D. Baird.

Mrs. Irene Buntun and Mr. Gaskin.

Mrs. Irene Buntun and Mr. Gaskin, of Coverdale, spent Sunday here. Mr. Gaskin, who is a member of the church, and his wife, Mrs. M. Doody, of New York, are guests at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Duff.

Rev. F. A. Wightman.

Rev. F. A. Wightman, chairman of the Chatham district of the Methodist church, was in Chatham for several days last week, attending to business preparatory to conference, which will meet in Summerside on the 7th inst.

Mr. E. A. Wightman.

Mr. E. A. Wightman, chairman of the Chatham district of the Methodist church, was in Chatham for several days last week, attending to business preparatory to conference, which will meet in Summerside on the 7th inst.

Mr. E. A. Wightman.

Mr. E. A. Wightman, chairman of the Chatham district of the Methodist church, was in Chatham for several days last week, attending to business preparatory to conference, which will meet in Summerside on the 7th inst.

superior of the Sacred Heart Convent, Providence (R. I.). The funeral takes place tomorrow with interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Father Grace.

Betty H. Marshall.

Betty H. Marshall, Digby, June 5.—Betty Hatheway Marshall, second daughter of H. H. Marshall, M. P., died at the home of her parents, Queen street, last night, aged fourteen years, having been ill since August. She was a bright young girl and a general favorite with all who knew her. Her death was a great loss to the three sisters having the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Geo. R. Boutiller.

Geo. R. Boutiller, Wednesday June 7.—George R. Boutiller, of 222 Waterloo street, passed away at an early hour yesterday morning from the result of blood poisoning, which was cut from a piece of glass. He was in the thirty-sixth year of his age and was employed with Murray & Gregory as foreman in the glass department. Besides his wife and one child, he is survived by one brother, William, and one sister, Mrs. John O'Brien, both of Halifax.

J. C. Boyd.

J. C. Boyd, The death of J. C. Boyd occurred at River Glade on June 2. He was seventy-seven years of age and leaves his wife, who was formerly Miss Martha Brown, sister of Mayor Brown of Sunbury Brae. He also leaves three daughters, two sons and a step-son. The daughters are Mrs. J. C. Boyd, Mrs. J. C. Boyd, and Mrs. J. C. Boyd. The sons are Mr. J. C. Boyd, Mr. J. C. Boyd, and Mr. J. C. Boyd. The step-son is Mr. J. C. Boyd. The funeral was held at the home of the deceased on June 4, at 10 o'clock a. m. The services were conducted by Rev. C. J. Morrissey, pastor of the Digby Baptist church.

Louis W. Parker.

Louis W. Parker, Word of the death of Louis W. Parker, of Dorchester, was received yesterday. He died on Tuesday night. His body will be brought to this city on the Boston train today for burial, which will take place at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. He is survived by his wife and by two sisters—Mrs. M. A. Vall, Mrs. Harry Dow and Miss Annie, all of Boston, and one brother, Charles, of this city.

Clark-Williams.

Clark-Williams, Thursday June 8.—Rev. J. H. Jenner, of Charlotte street Baptist church, officiated at the marriage of William Harvey Clark, of Moncton, and Miss Nellie F. Williamson, of West St. John. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hargrove, 818 King street, West St. John. The bride was wearing a dress of blue and white with a large collar and a long train. The groom was wearing a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Whelan in the presence of a number of friends of both parties. Numerous good wishes will be extended to the happy young couple who are both very popular. They left on the Limited for a trip to P. E. Island, and will on their return reside in Bathurst.

Dennis O'Brien.

Dennis O'Brien, Tuesday June 6.—The death of Dennis O'Brien took place in the Mater Misericordiae Home Sunday, in the eighty-third year of his age. He was a native of Ireland and had been a resident in Moncton for many years. He is survived by his wife and by two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Vall, Mrs. Harry Dow and Miss Annie, all of Boston, and one brother, Charles, of this city.

Mrs. John G. Stevens.

Mrs. John G. Stevens, Hopewell Hill, June 7.—The death occurred on Monday of this week, of Mrs. John G. Stevens of this place. Mrs. Stevens, who was a highly respected citizen, died at her home at 205 Main street, Hopewell Hill, on Monday, June 6, at 10 o'clock a. m. She was born in the town of Hopewell Hill, New Brunswick, on March 20, 1848. She was married to John G. Stevens, on June 10, 1868. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. G. Stevens, of this city, who is present on a voyage from a foreign port to Philadelphia, and William H. Stevens, of California. He also leaves one son-in-law and five grandchildren.

Arthur S. Schurman.

Arthur S. Schurman, of Amherst, is the guest of his brother, Rev. S. W. Schurman, of this city. He is attending the monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Board of Trade which is held in the town hall. Several important questions were under consideration, the most important being the question of the Mill street drain, which has for some time caused considerable annoyance to the citizens in that locality. A favorable report was given by the board of health, was presented. Information was received to the effect that the government would defray one-half the expense necessary for improvement, and the citizens of the town will be called upon for their part. The next meeting will be held in July.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and Miss Jean Miller.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and Miss Jean Miller left on Monday for a two months' visit in Winnipeg. While there they will attend the annual assembly of the Presbyterian church and visit Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. J. D. Baird.

Mrs. Irene Buntun and Mr. Gaskin.

Mrs. Irene Buntun and Mr. Gaskin, of Coverdale, spent Sunday here. Mr. Gaskin, who is a member of the church, and his wife, Mrs. M. Doody, of New York, are guests at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Duff.

Rev. F. A. Wightman.

Rev. F. A. Wightman, chairman of the Chatham district of the Methodist church, was in Chatham for several days last week, attending to business preparatory to conference, which will meet in Summerside on the 7th inst.

Mr. E. A. Wightman.

Mr. E. A. Wightman, chairman of the Chatham district of the Methodist church, was in Chatham for several days last week, attending to business preparatory to conference, which will meet in Summerside on the 7th inst.

Mr. E. A. Wightman.

Mr. E. A. Wightman, chairman of the Chatham district of the Methodist church, was in Chatham for several days last week, attending to business preparatory to conference, which will meet in Summerside on the 7th inst.

superior of the Sacred Heart Convent, Providence (R. I.). The funeral takes place tomorrow with interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Father Grace.

Betty H. Marshall.

Betty H. Marshall, Digby, June 5.—Betty Hatheway Marshall, second daughter of H. H. Marshall, M. P., died at the home of her parents, Queen street, last night, aged fourteen years, having been ill since August. She was a bright young girl and a general favorite with all who knew her. Her death was a great loss to the three sisters having the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Geo. R. Boutiller.

Geo. R. Boutiller, Wednesday June 7.—George R. Boutiller, of 222 Waterloo street, passed away at an early hour yesterday morning from the result of blood poisoning, which was cut from a piece of glass. He was in the thirty-sixth year of his age and was employed with Murray & Gregory as foreman in the glass department. Besides his wife and one child, he is survived by one brother, William, and one sister, Mrs. John O'Brien, both of Halifax.

J. C. Boyd.

J. C. Boyd, The death of J. C. Boyd occurred at River Glade on June 2. He was seventy-seven years of age and leaves his wife, who was formerly Miss Martha Brown, sister of Mayor Brown of Sunbury Brae. He also leaves three daughters, two sons and a step-son. The daughters are Mrs. J. C. Boyd, Mrs. J. C. Boyd, and Mrs. J. C. Boyd. The sons are Mr. J. C. Boyd, Mr. J. C. Boyd, and Mr. J. C. Boyd. The step-son is Mr. J. C. Boyd. The funeral was held at the home of the deceased on June 4, at 10 o'clock a. m. The services were conducted by Rev. C. J. Morrissey, pastor of the Digby Baptist church.

Louis W. Parker.

Louis W. Parker, Word of the death of Louis W. Parker, of Dorchester, was received yesterday. He died on Tuesday night. His body will be brought to this city on the Boston train today for burial, which will take place at 10 o'clock on Friday morning. He is survived by his wife and by two sisters—Mrs. M. A. Vall, Mrs. Harry Dow and Miss Annie, all of Boston, and one brother, Charles, of this city.

Clark-Williams.

Clark-Williams, Thursday June 8.—Rev. J. H. Jenner, of Charlotte street Baptist church, officiated at the marriage of William Harvey Clark, of Moncton, and Miss Nellie F. Williamson, of West St. John. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hargrove, 818 King street, West St. John. The bride was wearing a dress of blue and white with a large collar and a long train. The groom was wearing a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Whelan in the presence of a number of friends of both parties. Numerous good wishes will be extended to the happy young couple who are both very popular. They left on the Limited for a trip to P. E. Island, and will on their return reside in Bathurst.

Dennis O'Brien.

Dennis O'Brien, Tuesday June 6.—The death of Dennis O'Brien took place in the Mater Misericordiae Home Sunday, in the eighty-third year of his age. He was a native of Ireland and had been a resident in Moncton for many years. He is survived by his wife and by two daughters, Mrs. M. A. Vall, Mrs. Harry Dow and Miss Annie, all of Boston, and one brother, Charles, of this city.

Mrs. John G. Stevens.

Mrs. John G. Stevens, Hopewell Hill, June 7.—The death occurred on Monday of this week, of Mrs. John G. Stevens of this place. Mrs. Stevens, who was a highly respected citizen, died at her home at 205 Main street, Hopewell Hill, on Monday, June 6, at 10 o'clock a. m. She was born in the town of Hopewell Hill, New Brunswick, on March 20, 1848. She was married to John G. Stevens, on June 10, 1868. She is survived by two sons, Mr. J. G. Stevens, of this city, who is present on a voyage from a foreign port to Philadelphia, and William H. Stevens, of California. He also leaves one son-in-law and five grandchildren.

Arthur S. Schurman.

Arthur S. Schurman, of Amherst, is the guest of his brother, Rev. S. W. Schurman, of this city. He is attending the monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Board of Trade which is held in the town hall. Several important questions were under consideration, the most important being the question of the Mill street drain, which has for some time caused considerable annoyance to the citizens in that locality. A favorable report was given by the board of health, was presented. Information was received to the effect that the government would defray one-half the expense necessary for improvement, and the citizens of the town will be called upon for their part. The next meeting will be held in July.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and Miss Jean Miller.

Mrs. S. S. Miller and Miss Jean Miller left on Monday for a two months' visit in Winnipeg. While there they will attend the annual assembly of the Presbyterian church and visit Mrs. Miller's sister, Mrs. J. D. Baird.

Mrs. Irene Buntun and Mr. Gaskin.

Mrs. Irene Buntun and Mr. Gaskin, of Coverdale, spent Sunday here. Mr. Gaskin, who is a member of the church, and his wife, Mrs. M. Doody, of New York, are guests at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Duff.