protection; she is charged with being a common vagrant, and wandering about the streets at unseemly hours. She was fined $6 or 2 months Penitentiary, and 40 days additional for vagrancy. This old lady was before the Court on Tuesday last, but was excused on intimating that she wished to spend her Christmas holidays out. Last evening she returned, stating that having a good bed in the Penitentiary she preferred going back to get clear of the cold weather. To ensure a longer stay, she broke some of the panes in the window of her cell.

Jessie's Temptation.—Little Jessie had been eating currants, contrary to mamma's order. Her mother said: "You know you were forbidden to eat currants." "But, mother, Satan tempted me." "Why didn't you say get thee behind me, Satan?" "H did say get thee behind me, Satan?" "H did say get thee behind me, and pushed me right into the currant bushes."

A lisping mother, who had presented her infant at the baptismal font for christening, on being asked by the clergyman, "What name?" responded, in a whisper, "Lutby, thir." when to the horror of the whole congregation and the consternation of the mother he christened the baby, "Lucifer."

Swearing.—A seven year boy was lately heard to use profane language. On being reproved by his parents, and directed to ask God's forgiveness, he retired to his room ano was overheard to say: "O, God I am very sorry I said that bad wond, and won't say so any moro; but please hurry and make me grow up to be a man, and then I can swear as I want to, like pa, and nobody will notice it."
