Splendid Concert in Thorold. From the St. Catharines Standard of Nov. 7 we learn that the concert given in the Odd Fellows Hall, Thorold, on Friday evening was a very decided success, and the funds of the Choral Society of the church of the Holy Rosary will be augmented by a snug little sum in consequence.

Mr. John Coulon presided and presented a fine programme.

Holy Rosary will be augmented by a snug little sum in consequence.

Mr. John Conlon presided and presented a fine programme.

Miss Annie Coady was in good voice and sang with charming effect, "A Farewell to Ireland," the new song from the pen of Mr. David Battle. Everyone was pleased with the rendition and delighted with the song itself. It runs in beautiful metre and the thoughts are very prettily expressed. It is musically bright and sure to be a favorite. Miss Coady's rendition was warmly encored. The musical selections of the Burley Bros., William, George and Thomas, were exceptionally good. The Lancashire dialect sketch by Mr. Thatcher kept the audience convulsed with laughter.

It was a treat to all to again hear Miss Nellie Doyle, of Buffalo. She has a rich sweet voice, and her solo, "Melody Divine," was rapturously received. Miss Doyle is a decided favorite in Thorold.

Mr. J. Walter Low sang "Believe Me, if all Those Endearing Yeung Charms," in good voice, as also did Mr. Richardson in his very pretty selection "Answers." Mr. Suckling's bass solo, "The Fisherman and His Child" was faultlessly rendered.

The Excelsior Quartette were accorded a great reception. All their numbers were vociferously encored, especially "Dame Durden" and the "Tinkers' Chorus "from the opera of "Robin Hood." The quartette were in splenid voice and sang with much satisfaction to the audience.

In the voting contest for the most popular member of the town council, Mr. Joseph Battle received the largest number of votes and was presented with a costly umbrella. The voting was quite spirited, the leaders, Messrs. Battle, Cloy and Henderson, being well bunched. Mr. Battle made a very fitting reply to his friends' tribute to his popularity and hoped to find himself just as popular on election day.

The concert closed by the singing of "God Save the Queen" by the company.

ARCHDICCESE OF TORONTO.

On Sunday, the 12th ultimo, Most Rev. John Walsh, of Toronto, administered the sacrament of confirmation to one hundred and four children of the congregation of the Church of the Angels Guardian, here. His Grace had been engaged in a similar duty in Penetanguishene, and reached Orillia on the 16th ult. On arrival here, Rev. Father Duffy, the pastor, and Rev. Father McPhillips, parish priest of Uptergrove, in company with Thomas Mulcahy, Esq., of this town, received His Grace on behalf of the congregation, and accompanied him to the presbytery.

On the morning of the 17th ult. at 9:30 o'clock, forty-five boys, and forty-nine

On the morning of the 17th ult. at 9:30 o'clock, forty-five boys, and forty-nine girls, ranging from ten to fourteen years of age, why had been in preparation for sometime past, were assembled in the church for examination by His Grace, and after being thoroughly examined were permitted to approach the altar-railing on the following day, to receive the sacrament of confirmation at the hands of His Grace.

On Sunday morning, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the church was crowded to its utmost capacity. The children occupied the first four pews in the front of the church, and presented a very gleasing sight which will long be remembered by those whose good fortune it was to be present. Very Rev. Dean Egan, of Barrie, celebrated High Mass coram pontifiee; and Rev. Dr. Teefy, of St. Michael's college, attended His Grace; while Rev. Father Duffy acide as master of ceremonies. Rev. Father McPhillips was also present. After Mass had been concluded His Grace addressed the children and the congregation, impressing them with and the congregation, impressing them with the solemnity of the occasion, and the high import of the sociasion, and tas ingrainmort of the sacrament he was about to administer to the children. When the vener able Archishop bad completed the administration of the hely sacrament he pledged the boys just confirmed, to abstain from all in toxicating liquors until they reached the age toxicating liquors until they reached the age of twenty one years, and at the same time strengly advised the girls to avoid habits of extravagance in dress and otherwise, and practice the devotions of the Church, and not to forget their duties as Cathchies. At the close of the instructions, a number of gentlemen of the congregation drew towards the altar, and A. R. McDonnell, E-q. M. D., on behalf of the people of the parish, read the following beautifully worded address:

May it Please Your Grace—Taking advantage of this occasion, we the members of Branch 57, C. M. B. A., desire also to join in the hearty welcome extended to Your Grace by the congregation of the church of the Angels Goardian. Our pleasing duty is to salue Your Grace as the Spiritual Adviser of our noble organiza-ciation for the unstinted add so generously bestowed by you from its inception in this Dominion to the present time.

In the beginning, the branches were few and scattered, and the membership small, but after eighteen years of earnest work, it is a great satisfaction to know that wherever the Catholic faith flourishes there is also to be found a branch of this association, and we can now boast of two hundred and seventy branches, with a membership of over eleven thousand, which is rapidly annually increasing. To your efficacious spiritual guidance and abla temporal counsels, much if not all, this marked progress, is due and we beg to assure Your Grace that we but feebly express the esteem, respect and devotion in which you are so universally held by this association. The chill hand of Death has not left our branch untouched. It is with feelings of deep regret that we mention the irreparable loss sustained by our branch, when our first Spiritual Adviser, Rev. Archdeacon Campbell, was called to receive the reward he strived so hard to earn, and as our Catholic faith teaches, all will receive who emulate his pious example.

It is gratifying to state that our respected pastor, Rev Father Duffy, has, since his advent amongst us, been enrolled a member of our branch, and worthly fills the office of Spiritual Adviser therein.

We humbly but sincerely petition our Heavenly Father to preserve Your Grace in your present good health, that you may long continue to administer the duties pertaining to the holy office held by you.

We modestly request Your Grace to bless our work, the members of our branch, and their families.

In reply to the address from the parish. His Grave archein each as follows:

On behalf of Branch 17,

A. Bichard, Rec. Sec.
R. D. Gunn, Pres.

In reply to the address from the parish, His Grace spoke in part as follows, "I am very glad to be here and with you to day, and it was only at the very urgent request of the doctor that I was forced to disappoint you two weeks ago, and I am acting contrary, to his advice in being present to-day, but you never met an Irishman who is not more or less rebellious. I am always glad to come to Orillia and to meet the people of Orillia, whom I first visited in 1854. You have always had good priests here. Your first resident pastor was Rev. John Synnot, a very good, hard working priest, who lived up among the tombs in Peter Kenny's cabin. Many of you will remember him to day. He has passed to his reward, and was followed by another hard-working and zealous priest, in the person of the Venerable Archdeacon Campbell, who now sleeps beneath the shadow of this beautiful temple he built for the worship of God. He has left monuments of his zeal behind him, which will always call up from the hearts of the people of this mission acts of gratitude and kindly remembrances at the altar. I would be pleased if some of the gentlemen of the parish would meet to consider the propriety of erecting a modest though suitable monument to his memory. After some further remarks as to the marked progress of the mission, the condition of the church property, and very creditable appearance of the children, His Grace referred in complimentary terms to the advance and good work accomplished by the C. M. B. A. He said that he had always taken a great interest in the association from its insception in Canada to the present time, and was pleased to see it making such repid strides. He gave a short resume of the introduction and organization of the Institution from the establishment of the first branch at Windsor down to the present time, closing His remarks by expressing the wish that the society would increase in numbers and continue to carry out the objects for which it was formed.

was formed. He then invoked the biessing of God on all present, and the ceremony was brought to a conclusion.

At Vespers Dr. Teefy preached an eloquent and highly impressive sermon on the Wisdom of God, to a crowded church.

On Monday morning the school was visited by His Grace, accompanied by Father Duffy, where they were received by the teachers and trustees. The children, besides greeting His Grace with a song of well come most pleasingly rendered, presented the following address, which was read in a very creditable manner by Master Roy McDonell:

To the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Toronto:

It is with feelings of joy and gladness that we, the children of the Ortlila Separate school, welcome Your Grace to-day. We were de lighted when informed by our beloved pastor, that you would probably visit our school on the occasion of your pastoral visit to this parish, and now that you are with us, we desire to approach Your Grace with that respect and devotien due you as our chief pastor.

We are proud of our school and teachers, who, under the watchful guidance and care of our beloved pastor, Father Duffy, bave taken such great pains and trouble to prepare us for the worthy reception of the blessed sacraments of the Holy Eucharist and confirmation. In conclusion, we sincerely trust Your Grace will find that we merit these great blessings at your hands: that Your Grace may be spared many years of beaith and strength for the performance of your high office in the Church, and now we ask Your Grace to honor and protect with your blessing, our beloved pastor, our worthy teachers and ourselves.

LETTER FROM REV. FATHER MOU-

Priest's Bay, Lake Temiscamingue, Oct. 28, 1896.

To the Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Archbishop of Toronto:

May It Please Your Grace,—On behalf of the people of the parish of the Angels Guardian, we tender you a most hearty welcome on this your pastoral visit.

We are pleased to note that despite your years, and the onus of the manifold duties of your high station, Your Grace is still hale and hearty, combining the wisdom of maturity with the visor and fire of youth, thereby buoying us with hope that you shall be spared for many years to continue the good work begun in the Archdicese by your illustrious predeces ors, that we your children may long erlys the blessings of your ever-waterful and paternal care, and that you, the good shepherd, may long be left to us for the edification of society and the material and spiritual welfare of your flock. It is indeed with pleasure we bear testimony to the zeal and vigitance in our behalf, as well as to the urbanity and loving kindness of the Rev. Father Duffy, to whose care you have committed us since the filness and demice of our late pastor—the late Venerable Archdeacon—Camphell of happy memory that the presbytery, the church, and the graced these monuments to the piety and progress of the late archdeacon—are carefully guarded and looked after by Rev. Father Duffy.

In conclusion, Most Rev. Sir, we pledge our unswerving leyalty and devotion to Your Grace, to the Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, and to Ills Holmess Leo XIII. its chief pastor, and in return humbly ask Your Grace to bestow upon us your episcopal beneficiton.

to come and take their share of that beantiful inheritance the Creator made for them! I was reading in a paper lately that now is the time to colonize the head of the great Temiscamingue lake. This remark is true and full of opportunity. This is the reason why I make an appeal to good Catholic Irish families to come and take their share before it is too late. Bones alone are for the last — no meat. Let them come in numbers and without fear. They will be welcomed by their countrymen already residing there. They will surely like to know the first pioneers along White river by the order of their coming. These are their names: Patrick Judge (sr.), William Judge (jr.), Michael Lynch, John Gibbons, James Gibbons, Joseph Gibbons, Michael Cannon, Joseph Sheady, Hugh Keyes, Patrick Bolgear, John Bolgear, Martin Bolgear Lepine Plante, Joseph Lepine, — Bolgear (sr.), Frank Lamare, — Malone from Inglewood, Ontario (merchant), and Patrick Wallis. These last two came on the White river with the intention of having a store there, after having read my first letter.

This is the best time for Catholics to think about establishing themselves, with their families, on those beautiful townships as green as the Mother Isle.

To complete this letter I must add that the White river settlement is close to a good market for the produce of the farm. The head of Lake Temiscamingue is a region for lumbering business. Hay, oats, potatocs, and other produce, will be easily sold by the farmer for a good price. The river is full of fish, and the bush is a veritable paradise for the hunter, being full of moose, deer, partridges, etc. Besides, the White river is the right road to Montreal river, beaktiful and yet unknown except to a few Indian families. This settlement will be a grand domain for the farmer of the future. The Grand Trunk will probably build a railroad through it after some time, unto James Bay; and if we live yet twenty years more we will surely see the Irish farmer reach the sea with the shamrock if he does not suffer too much.

With this hope I close my letter, which I have written rather hastily, having many other letters to write.

Believe me, my dear sir, Yours very truly, M. C. Mourier, O. M. I. Lake Temiscamingue, P. Q.

CATHOLIC TRUTH SOCIETY.

ST. MARY'S BRANCH, TORONTO.

A largely-attended meeting of this branch was held in their hall, Bathurst street, on Mon-day evening, when gratifying reports were presented from the different committees.

The report dealing with the circulation of Catholic literature was especially satisfac-

The report dealing with the circulation of Catholic literature was especially satisfactory. It is very encouraging to note that this part of the work is growing. Requests for cheap literature are coming in from all quarters. If Catholics generally had any idea of the large number of cheap publications ranging from 40c, per hundred copies, and of the infinite variety of subjects that are so ably treated by the best of Catholic writers on controversial, devotional and historical subjects, there is no doubt but that they would be more generally purchased. One subjects, there is no doubt but that they would be more generally purchased. One dollar will procure a goodly assertment, and orders will be thankfully received by the corresponding secretary, W. E. Blake, 6 Mark ham place, Toronto.

The Rev. Father O'Malley, of Uxbridge, Ont., who was present at the meeting, gave a most interesting address in his well known elequent manner, dealing with the mission to non-Catholics given in his parish by the zealous Paulist, Rev. Walter Elliot, who has just concluded a missionary tour in Ontario.

WEDDING BELLS.

FOLEY-COYNE.

FOLEY-COYNE.

One of the prettiest events of the season occurred at St. James Church, Eganville, on Tuesday morning of last week, whem Mr. Martin Foley, manager of the planing mill here, and Miss Sarah Coyne, daughter of Mr. John Coyne, Brudenell, were joined in holy wedlock. The bride looked charming in a fawn dress trimmed with brown velvet and gimp. Being a member of the Sodality of the Children of Mary, the bride also wore a wreath and veil. She was assisted by her sister, Miss Hannah Coyne, who was tastefully attired in a navy blue serge suit, with hat to match. The groom—looking as he has even proved himself to be—every inch a gentleman, was ably supported by Mr. Thos. Brougham. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Dowdall after which nuptial High Mass was celebrated. The choir, under the leadership of Miss V. Taillon, rendered some appropriate hymns for the occasion. Adjournment was then made to the presbytery, where a sumptuous repast was spread, to which ample justice was done by a large number of invited guests. The bride was made the recipient of numerous valuable and useful presents—one being a magnificent parlor stove, the gift of some intimate friends. A drive to the C. P. R. station followed, where the happy couple boarded the train amid showers of rice and good wishes, for an extended trip to Ottawa and other eastern cites. That their path through ife may be ever smooth and their fature prolific of happiness is the wish of your correspondent.

A Statement Denied.

The statement having been made that Cardinal Vaughan intended to send out into the highways of London a body of lay preachers, his Eminence make this denial: "The rumor that I intended, as head of the Catholic Church in England, to organize a series of public services to be conducted in Hyde and other parks, principally by distinguished laymen, is devoid of foundation. The report arose, I presume, from the fact that a small body of young Catholics, not more than seven or eight, of whom many are professional men, have been desirous of spreading the Catholic faith by means of public addresses, and that my brother, Monsignor Vaughan, has extended his advice and counsel to them. What this may eventually lead to it is impossible just now to say, but at the present moment, I, as head of the English Catholic Church, have no intention of organizing such a movement as has been referred to in the papers." While the Cardinal is, therefore, apparently not enthusiastic over lay help in preaching the Gospel, he is not opposed to outdoor meetings. And, indeed, how could he be? For if the lost sheep will not flock to the shepherd, is it not the part of a good shepherd to go in search of them?
