Asthmalene Brings Instant Relief and Permanent Cure in All Cases

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The REV. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge Ill. says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with painful sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

REV. DR. MORRIS WECHSLER
Rabbi of the Cong. Bnai Israel,
New York, Jan. 3, 1901.
Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.
Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful.

After having it carefully analyzed, we can state that Asthmalene contains no opium, morphine, chloroform or ether.

Very truly yours,
REV. DR. MORRIS WECHSLER

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co.
Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130 street, New York. I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma had disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I feel that I can conscientiously recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully,
O. D. PHELPS, M.D.

Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 23 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed. I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full-sized bottle, and I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit.

Dionysius' Ear.
In Syracuse is a cave said to have been constructed by the tyrant Dionysius, probably used as a prison. It is made in the shape of an immense human ear, and its acoustic properties are most remarkable. Maxwell Sommerville, the author of "Sands of Sahara," visited it and had his properties exhibited to him by the guide stationed there.

The man took a sheet of letter paper and, standing within the portal of the ear, struck the edge of the paper with the forefinger of his right hand once, twice, thrice. Each light tap was repeated through the deep orifices of that stone ear as if it had been a blow with a heavy sledge hammer on the roof of an iron house. He then rattled the paper slightly, and that feeble sound was augmented a millionfold, reverberating through the vaults above and beyond like the crash and roll of thunder. He whistled, spoke and called. Thousands of stentorian voices repeated every sound. Turning to my companion, I said:

"We must not longer tarry. Let us embark. Now we shall go to Kabylia, on our way to the desert of Sahara." Myriad lungs of stone caught up the last word of each phrase and answered aloud, "Tarry—arry—embark—ark—Kabylia—bylla—Sahara—hara—ara—a—s."

Out of Child's Mouths.

The teacher of a path school class, says The Christian Register, approached one little fellow who was present for the first time and inquired his name, for the purpose of placing it on the roll. "Well," said the youngster, they call me Jimmie for short, but my maiden name is James."

This is a good mate for the naive and somewhat boastful statement of a little girl in a Buffalo household who assured a playmate that she not only had two maiden aunts, but a maiden grandmother!

England's Tipping Act.

A queer English law, called the "tipping act of 1751," provides that an innkeeper cannot recover for debts for liquor amounting to more than $5. The son of an eminent English throat specialist lately ran up a bill of $250 at an English public house and based a refusal to pay upon the validity of this act. As the statute was still on the books, the judge was obliged to acknowledge its force.

Dr. Chase's Ointment

Last week ten men were signed to join the barque Landakrona at Kingsport. The men were to have left Saturday morning and were given advance notes for different amounts. Four of the number after getting their notes cashed at city firms left for parts unknown and the merchants are the losers. One of them, James Parsons, has been traced to the Silvis, on which vessel he took passage to his home at Concept Bay, Nfld, via St. John's, Nfld. The other three were brothers, James Igo, George Igo and Burtley Igo, all of whom claimed to have come from North Sydney. The firms victimized are looking for the trio of brothers.—Herald.

Bridegroom, after the ceremony.—Maud, my dear, you and I are now one. It only remains to decide which is the one I tried to win you, didn't I?

Bride—Yes, Harold.

Groom—And I won. That seems to settle it—doesn't it?

Bride—Not exactly, Harold. You tried to win me. You succeeded. Then you are the winner, are you not?

Groom—Yes, dear.

Bride—And I am the won—so that settles it.

The Canadian Order of Foresters

This society was organized in November, 1879, with a membership of less than four hundred. At first its operations were confined to a portion of the Province of Ontario, but today it has Courts (or Lodges) in every province of the Dominion of Canada, to which its operations are confined, and has a membership of over 43,000. Since its organization the society has paid out in insurance nearly $1,600,000 and on the 31st of August last had a surplus in its insurance fund of $1,082,000. This surplus has accumulated since the 1st of November, 1885, when the insurance rates were increased to the following payable monthly in advance:

Between the On On On On age of $300 $1000 $1500 $2000

18 to 25 .35 .60 .90 $1.20

25 to 30 .40 .65 .95 1.30

30 to 35 .45 .70 $1.05 1.40

35 to 40 .50 .85 1.25 1.70

40 to 45 .55 $1.00 1.50 2.00

In 1900 over $195,000 were paid out in life insurance and over $144,000 was carried to the reserve or surplus fund.

The limit of insurance on any life is $2,000.

By confining the operations of the society to Canada, and with a rigid medical examination, the death rate has been kept very low. In 1899, the death rate per 1,000 of the membership was only 4.43; in 1900, 4.88 and the average death rate for the last twenty-one years is only 4.93 per 1,000 of the membership.

Every dollar of the surplus in the Insurance Fund is invested in gilt-edged securities of municipalities or loan companies, in Dominion Government stock, or on deposit in the best monetary institutions of Canada. Not a dollar is invested out of the country or in mortgages or buildings which may deteriorate in value. List of investments published in every issue of the "Canadian Forester."

For the information of the membership

The society also conducts a Sick Benefit Department, about 22,000 of the members participating in the benefits. The rates for the same, payable monthly in advance, are:

Between 18 and 25 years. 25 cents

" 25 and 30 years. 30 cents

" 30 and 35 years. 35 cents

" 35 and 40 years. 40 cents

" 40 and 45 years. 45 cents

In 1900 over $63,000 were paid out in sick and funeral benefits.

All physically and morally qualified males, between the ages of 18 and 45 years, who are not disqualified on account of occupation, are accepted for membership.

For further particulars enquire of any of the officers or members of the Order, or address:

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. Thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours,

The Belmont Bulletin, Belmont, Mass., of Nov. 2nd, says:—

A pretty home wedding took place last evening at the residence of Mr. Jas. W. McCabe, of Leonard Street, Belmont, when his daughter Miss Jennie W. McCabe, and Mr. Arthur E. Harvey of Waverley were united in marriage. The Rev. George P. Gilman, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Waverley officiated. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Annie McCabe, a handsome young lady from Amherst, Nova Scotia, and Mr. Ulysses S. Young of Boston was best man. The bride was gowned in a beautiful crepe de chene dress trimmed with white applique and wore a dutch lace collar, presented by her sister, Mrs. G. F. Warren, of Waltham, who was present and celebrated the eleventh anniversary of her wedding. The bride carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore white silk muslin over blue and carried a bouquet of daybreak pink. The wedding was a family affair, only the most intimate friends of the bride and groom being present, and numbered about 75 in all. The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents. Immediately after the reception and supper the newly married couple started on a short trip to New York. On the return they will reside with the bride's parents on Leonard St.
