(6) Section thirty-three is further amended by adding the following subsection thereto:—

“(13) An officer in charge at any port of entry may require a deposit of money, for such amount as such officer may prescribe as a guarantee that any person or organization admitted to Canada as belonging to any of the non-immigrant classes shall leave Canada within the time agreed upon at the time of entry, and the said money so deposited shall be refunded when the officer in charge is satisfied that such person or organization has left Canada. If, however, such person or organization does not leave Canada within the period agreed upon at the time of entry, the money so deposited shall be forfeited and become part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada: Provided that the time limit may be extended by an officer in charge with the approval of the Minister.”

Deposit of money as guarantee that non-immigrant will leave at time agreed upon.

13. Paragraph (c) of section thirty-eight of the said Act is repealed, and the following is substituted therefor:—

“(c) prohibit or limit in number for a stated period or permanently the landing in Canada, or the landing at any specified port or ports of entry in Canada, of immigrants belonging to any nationality or race or of immigrants of any specified class or occupation, by reason of any economic, industrial or other condition temporarily existing in Canada or because such immigrants are deemed unsuitable having regard to the climatic, industrial, social, educational, labour or other conditions or requirements of Canada or because such immigrants are deemed undesirable owing to their peculiar customs, habits, modes of life and methods of holding property, and because of their probable inability to become readily assimilated or to assume the duties and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship within a reasonable time after their entry.”

Landing of certain classes of immigrants may be prohibited.

14. Section forty of the said Act, as enacted by chapter twelve of the statutes of 1911, is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:—

“40. Whenever any person, other than a Canadian citizen or person having Canadian domicile, shall be found an inmate of or connected with the management of a house of prostitution or practising prostitution, or who shall receive, share in, or derive benefit from any part of the earnings of any prostitute or who manages or is employed by, in, or in connection with any house of prostitution or music or dance hall or other place of amusement or resort habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather, or who in any way assists any prostitute or protects
