jane's
VALENTINE'S DAY card contest

Show Jane she's NOT the most bitter person you know by sending her an anti-Valentine to the Gazette. The winner gets to share some "Valentine's Day Sucks" cake with Jane's bitter friends AND appear in DEAR JANE.
Oooh, lucky, lucky.

RITA RUDNER, STAND-UP COMIC
"Whenever I date a guy, I think, is this the man I want my children to spend their weekends with?"

Waaay too optimistic. When I'm on a date, I think, jeez, how much did Mom have to pay this freak?

People who have not won Jane's Anti-Valentine's Day Card Contest include:

DELTA BURKE, ACTRESS
"If you want to say it with flowers, remember that a single rose screams: 'I'm cheap!'"

Yeah, well the last time I got any kind of flower on V-day, I had a 10 o'clock curfew.

ANN LANDERS, ADVICE COLUMNIST
"The poor wish to be rich, the rich wish to be happy, the single wish to be married, and the married wish to be dead."

If she meant it, she would have told all her readers to shoot themselves long ago.

LIZ WINSTON
"I think, therefore I'm single."

Too feel good. Another quote of Liz's is, "When my mom found my diaphragm, I told her it was a bathing cap for my cat." It's funnier, but of course it doesn't have anything to do with an anti-Valentine, and would likely disqualify her because it implies that Liz is getting laid.

DIANE WAKOSKI, AUTHOR OF MOTORCYCLE BETRAYAL POEMS
"This book is dedicated to all those men who betrayed me at one time or another, in hopes they will fall off their motorcycles and break their necks."

Actually, if Diane had entered, she probably would have won. So c'mon guys and gals, get those cards in.

posters, media releases and word of mouth attracted many to the seminars.

Unfortunately, due to the Arabic Society's limited funds, only professors from Nova Scotia could be recruited for the seminars. Despite a wealth of knowledge in the local area, the council felt that some topics, such as the Gulf War and the history of countries like Libya, Iraq and Kuwait, could not be appropriately addressed.

In spite of this, Abdelaziz was proud of the seminars.

"For the first time, [the seminars] were great!" she said.
