Camp Borden	23-2-45		0900 hours, ceiling 1000', visibility 4 miles. Flying washed out all day due to U/S field. It was with great pleasure that the Commanding Officer announced today the promotions of S/Ldrs. Buchanan and Hasenpflug to the rank of Wing Commander, the promotion of Jim Wright, popular commander of No. 1 Squadron, to Squadron Leader, and also the promotions from F/O rank to F/L for Bill Ingram, J.G. Scott, and Bob Lauer. All these officers are old and popular members of this station and everyone is very pleased to see that their good work has been recognized in such a fitting manner. Immediately following his promotion news, S/Ldr. Wright was further gratified to receive a signal advising him to report to Greenwood H.S. for O.T.U. training on Mosquitoes. The Station Hockey Team played in Belleville against Trenton in the Command Semi-finals tonight and were defeated by the score of 5-4.
