

We had an earthquake out-here last week. It was quite severe in Los Angeles, but was merely a vibration in Ocean Park.

There are about three hundred Canadian families at the Beach, and every Tuesday night, we have a Canadian evening at the dancing pavilion, which I enjoy very much. Christmas Day, there is to be a big Christmas tree on the ⁴⁶³³⁷ Pier for Canadian children. This will be my second Christmas spent away from home, but not Christmas if I am spared.

I shall celebrate it in my own home. I foolishly rented it for two years, and now, I have missed it. Apartments are very nice and convenient, but to me, there is no place like home.
