Ottawa, 26th November, 1913.

Sir,

In view of the report in your letter of the 18th instant, I beg to say that the Department approves of the discontinuance of the practice of selling beef at your Agency to outsiders, in view of the fact that it necessitates your purchasing beef later on in the season for use at the Agency.

Your obedient servant,

L. H. Keane
Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

J. W. Vaddy, Esq.,
Indian Agent,
Morley, Alta.
