

Constitution

ARTICLE I.

Section 1. The affairs of the party are conducted by the Dominion Executive Committee, Provincial Executive Committees, Local Organizations, Party Conventions and by the general vote.

Sec. 2. Party law shall become effective only when approved by a majority of the general vote.

ARTICLE II.

Locals.

Section 1. Five or more persons may form a Local, provided they acknowledge the Platform and Constitution of the party and subscribe to its pledge of membership. They shall report their organization to the Provincial Executive Committee, and, with the approval of such committee, a charter shall be issued. The Local shall comply with the requirements of the Dominion Executive Committee and Provincial Executive Committee as to financial and other reports. OK.

Application for charter must be made upon form provided by the Dominion Executive Committee. In addition to dues for current month, each application for charter must be accompanied by a fee of $5 to cover expense of all necessary supplies.)

~~Sec. 2. Where convenient, any Local may, within its own riding, organize branch Locals under its charter, with the approval of the Provincial Executive Committee. Such branches shall~~